DELHI HC CLIPS WFI, DISSOLUTION OF AD-HOC PANEL 'UNWARRANTED'

The court has asked WFI to abstain from administering and managing the day-to-day activities with immediate effect

AD-HOC PANEL BACK IN PLAY FOR WRESTLING

The Delhi High Court restored the IOA's ad-hoc committee's mandate for Wrestling Federation of India on an earlier plea by wrestlers Bajrang Punia, Vinesh Phogat, Sakshi Malik and Satyawart Kadian. A multi-member panel is to be formed by the Indian Olympic Association to ensure day-to-day running of the sport in the country

HARD TO PREDICT WHAT FUTURE HOLDS: VINESH

- Vinesh Phogat, who retired last week, wrote in an emotional post, "I can't predict what the future holds for me... but I am sure that I will continue to fight always for what I believe in and for the right thing."
- Under 'different circumstances', the 29-year-old said in a long statement, '... could see myself playing till 2032'. P17

Order against SBI, PNB on hold for 15 days

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE state government has kept its order stopping all transactions with the State Bank of India (SBI) and Punjab National Bank (PNB) on hold for 15 days after the banks sought time to resolve all issues.

"On August 16, both banks submitted written representations to the government, requesting a 15-day period to resolve the issues. The same day, senior bank officials met officials of the Finance Department and reiterated their request.

After considering the banks' request, the chief minister directed the officials to keep the circular in abeyance for 15 days," said a statement issued by the government.

"This will give the two banks sufficient time to address the issues and redress the concerns of the government," the statement said.

Based on the observations made by the Public Accounts Committee on July 2 and August 6, and the findings in the Comptroller and Auditor General's report, the government decided to issue the circular directing all its departments to withdraw their deposits from all branches of PNB and SBI.

According to the statement issued by the government on Friday, the action was taken in view of the alleged fraud in some branches of the banks, which resulted in non-repayment of fixed deposits made by the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board (KSPCB) and the Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB). Despite prolonged correspondence and meetings, these issues remained unresolved since 2012-13.

The government is committed to ensuring transparency and accountability in all its dealings, it will continue to monitor the situation and take appropriate action to protect the interests of all stakeholders, the statement said.

J&K to get govt after 10 yrs, poll dates out

Schedule for Haryana also announced; BJP faces resurgent opposition in first major election after the Lok Sabha polls

FAYAZ WANI & HARPREET BAJWA
@ Srinagar/Chandigarh

SETTING the stage for the first popularity test after the Lok Sabha elections, the Election Commission of India on Friday announced the Assembly election schedule for Jammu & Kashmir and Haryana. Elections in J&K will be held in three phases starting September 18, while Haryana polls will be held on October 1. Results of both elections will be out on October 4.

Of the 90 seats in Jammu and Kashmir, 24 seats will go to the polls on September 18 in the first phase, 26 seats in the second phase on September 25, and 40 in the third and final phase on October 1. All 90 seats in Haryana will go to polls on October 1.

The announcement comes months after the Supreme Court upheld the Centre's decision to scrap J&K's special status and directed that Assembly elections be held by September 30.

This would be the first polls in the J&K Union territory after abrogation of Article 370. The polls would end the six-year central rule in Jammu and Kashmir.

Almost all political parties welcomed the EC's announcement.

Assembly polls in J&K were last held in November 2014 when the PDP and the BJP formed a coalition government led by Mufti Mohammed Sayeed. His death in 2016 led to Mehbooba Mufti becoming the CM. The BJP pulled out of the government in June 2018 and the state was put under governor's rule. The assembly was dissolved in 2018.

In Haryana, the BJP is hopeful of forming government for the third consecutive time but it needs to counter a resurgent Congress, which is looking to cash in on the anti-incumbency factor. Apart from the BJP and Congress, the Jannayak Janta Party, Indian National Lok Dal and the Aam Aadmi Party are also set to field their candidates, making it a multi-cornered contest in Haryana.

Early this year, the BJP had replaced Manohar Lal Khattar with Nayab Singh Saini as CM to counter anti-incumbency. Saini will be the BJP's CM face for the assembly polls.

Both elections are crucial for the BJP, which is looking to improve its image after its less-than-expected performance in the Lok Sabha polls.

The saffron party is looking to retain power in Haryana and put up a strong show in Jammu and Kashmir, where its strongholds have been traditionally confined to the Jammu division. P9

Resident doctors stage protests seeking justice for the doctor who was raped and murdered at a Kolkata hospital | PTI

HC whiplash at govt's failure to deal with Kolkata mob

SULAGNA SENGUPTA @ Kolkata

THE Calcutta High Court on Friday came down like a ton of bricks on the West Bengal administration for its abject failure in handling a midnight mob that ransacked the RG Kar Medical College and Hospital in Kolkata and terrorised its staff.

The mob attack happened at a time when a massive midnight protest was on elsewhere in the city over the horrific the rape and murder of a trainee doctor in the hospital on August 9.

The court directed the police and the hospital authority to file affidavits on the incident.

A division bench presided by Chief Justice T S Sivagnanam said it was hard to believe that the police intelligence did not have information about the gathering of 7,000 people at the health facility, when the state's lawyer told the court the administration did not expect such a massive mob in the wee hours of Thursday.

The bench said the police should place on record the entire sequence of events that led to the vandalism in the hospital. "You pass Section 144 of the CrPC orders for any reason. When so much commotion is going on, you should have cordoned the area. 7,000 people can't come walking," the bench said.

It also directed the CBI to file an interim report on the progress of investigation into the rape and murder of the woman doctor.

Meanwhile, the CBI questioned Dr Sandip Ghosh, former principal of RG Kar, in the rape and murder of the trainee doctor. He was picked up around 8.30 am and taken to the CGO complex in Salt Lake for interrogation. The CBI had summoned Ghosh several times for questioning, but he had been evading them.

Seen as close to Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee, Ghosh is facing several charges.

Mamata, who led a protest march demanding justice for the doctor, accused the CPI(M) and the BJP of orchestrating vandalism at the hospital. The BJP, too, staged rallies across the state, demanding Mamata's resignation. P10

UPROOTED TREE CLAIMS LIFE OF AUTO DRIVER IN B'LURU

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

SPELLS of heavy rain on Friday evening cost the life of an autorickshaw driver after a gulmohar tree fell on his vehicle near MC Layout in Vijayanagar.

The victim, Shivarudraiah (49), is survived by wife and two daughters.

BLG Swamy, Deputy Conservator of Forest, Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike, said, "The autorickshaw driver, Shivarudraiah, had sustained injuries in the head, leg and private parts. BBMP officials rushed to the spot, shifted him to a nearby hospital and later to Victoria Hospital. But doctors declared him dead on arrival." The ex-gratia will be released to the victim's family members as per Palike norms by the west zone commissioner, he added.

BBMP teams were pressed to clear uprooted trees and branches at Majestic, RR Nagar and MS Palya.

This is the second such incident this year. On August 12, six persons, including four schoolchildren, were injured after a tree fell on them at Jai Bharath Nagar in Sarvajna Nagar. The children suffered minor injuries, a two-wheeler rider, Manikyavel suffered grievous injuries and a woman, Vijayalakshmi, had fractured her thigh bone.

Experts install one stoplog at TB reservoir

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR @ Hosapete

AFTER facing hurdles on Thursday, the experts' team removed the beam and the hoist bridge (skywalk) and installed one of the five stoplogs at crest gate No 19 of the TB dam on Friday.

With this, the team members are confident of completing the stoplog installation work by Saturday evening. They removed the beam and the hoist bridge with the help of two heavy duty cranes. However, they could not fix the metal stoplog manufactured by JSW Steel Ltd's local plant because of some design error. Four stoplogs manufactured by two other companies are error-free.

N Kannaiah Naidu, hydro-mechanical engineer, who is leading the team, said after identifying two major technical errors, the beam and the hoist bridge atop the crest gate were removed. "We are trying to minimise the flow of water from the dam. My team is working hard to install the stoplogs." he added.

"Three stoplogs are ready for installation. By Saturday evening, they will be installed. The crest gate will have five stoplogs," he said.

A senior official from the TB dam board said 72 tmcft of water storage was recorded on Friday evening. The team has promised to complete the installation work by Saturday evening. P4

Yunus dials Modi, says reports on minorities 'exaggerated'

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

BANGLADESH Chief Advisor Muhammad Yunus on Friday called Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the first direct communication between the two after the Nobel Laureate assumed charge on August 8. Modi congratulated Yunus on his new role and asked him to ensure the safety of Hindus in Bangladesh.

"Received a telephone call from Professor Muhammad Yunus. Exchanged views on the prevailing situation. Reiterated India's support for a democratic, stable, peaceful and progressive Bangladesh," said PM Modi.

Yunus said his interim government is committed to safeguarding every citizen of the country, including the minorities. "Situation in Bangladesh has been brought under control and is becoming normal," he said.

During his talk with Modi, Yunus termed the reports of attacks on the minorities 'exaggerated', said a statement from Dhaka. He also offered to invite Indian journalists to visit Bangladesh and report on the actual ground situation in the country.

NATIONAL FILM AWARDS

KGF 2, Kantara shine, South Indian films retain hot streak

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chennai

THE 70th National Film Awards announced on Friday reflected the continuing hot streak of South Indian cinema since last year. Malayalam film Aattam won the Best Feature Film award, Rishab Shetty bagged the Best Actor award for Kantara while Nithya Menen (Thiruchitrambalam) shared the Best Actress award with Manasi Parekh (The Kutch Express).

Ponniyin Selvan I won several key awards, including Best Music Direction-Background Score (AR Rahman), Best Sound Design (Anand Krishnamoorthy), and Best Cinematography (Ravi Varman). This is AR Rahman's seventh National Award, the most for any music director in India. In the crew awards section, Jani and Sathish Krishnan won the Best Choreography Award for their work in Thiruchitrambalam (Megam Karukatha). Films like KGF Chapter 2, Brahmastra Part I, and Fouja also won awards in key categories.

Apart from the Best Film award, Aattam won the Best Editing award (Mahesh Bhuvanend) and Best Screenplay award (Anand Ekarshi). The latter was shared with the Hindi film Gulmohar.

Responding to the win, Aattam director Anand Ekarshi said, "It feels surreal to even think that our film has won among 300 submissions... To win three awards at the national level is quite overwhelming." On the other hand, Anand Krishnamoorthy, who won the Best Sound Design Award for Ponniyin Selvan I revealed that he was not aware of the winners list being announced on Friday.

He said, "I'm quite thrilled about the award. There were no expectations but as a team, we knew that we had done good work. There was a time during the post-production during which AR Rahman sir and I took both of our materials and worked together. The working process with Rahman sir was very enjoyable, so the fact that both background music and sound design have been recognised makes us all the more happy."

Brahmastra Part I has won in three categories including Best Music Direction (Pritam), Best Playback Singer (Arijit Singh for Kesariya), and Best Film in AVGC.

Arijit Singh shared the Best Playback Singer award with Bombay Jayashree for her work in Saudi Vellakka (Chaayum Veyil). Best Director was given to Sooraj Barjatya and Best Actor in a Supporting Role went to Neena Gupta, for their respective works in Uunchai.

CENTRE FINALLY CLEARS METRO PHASE-3

Deadline for 44.65-km project 2029; preliminary land acquisition process starts

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Union Cabinet gave the green signal to Bengaluru Metro's Rs 15,611-crore Phase-3 project on Friday night, said multiple BMRCL sources. The approval has come one year and nine months after the state initially submitted it to the Centre for clearance.

The 44.65-km project consists of two elevated stretches -- Corridor 1 runs to 32.15 km on the Western side of Outer Ring Road and connects JP Nagar Phase 4 with Kempapura, while Corridor 2 runs for 12.5 km on Magadi Road and connects Hosahalli and Kadabagere. The project deadline was fixed for 2029 after the State government gave its final approval on March 14 this year.

A top BMRCL official said, "We will do our best to complete the project as quickly as possible. The preliminary process of land acquisition has already started."

The crucial project suffered an enormous delay in getting the clearance. The state initially approved the project on November 18, 2022 at a cost of Rs 16,328 crore with a 20% share to be borne by Karnataka and the rest by the Centre through external borrowings, said a source. The proposal was submitted to the Centre in February 2023, but the Union government wanted the cost reduced. The state pruned it to Rs 16,041 crore in a revised report submitted by June-end in 2023 with the consultancy firm RITES removing the escalation cost calculated for rolling stock.

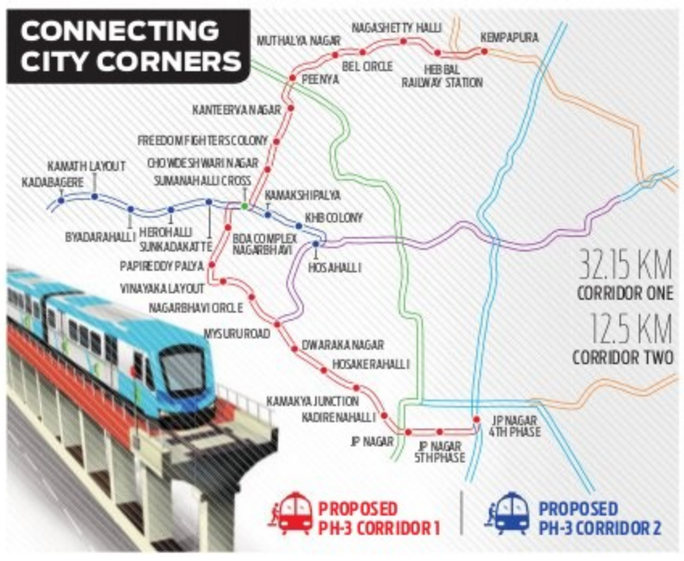
The cost was further lowered in the final proposal. The Detailed Project Report kept going back and forth between the state and Union governments with numerous clarifications sought by the Centre. Meanwhile, the Lok Sabha elections were announced and the model code of conduct came into force.

The state government then gave its nod for the revised project cost of Rs 15,611 crore on March 14 this year. It also decided to bear 80% of the cost of the project unlike in the past and announced a deadline of 2029.

The Centre's Public Investment Board cleared it in May 2024 and the Union finance ministry cleared it last month. Urban development officials made a presentation to the PMO and the Cabinet nod was awaited.

The Metro Phase-3 will provide multi-modal integration at ten locations by interchanging with BMTC, railway stations and the proposed suburban rail. A major thrust has been given to last-mile connectivity.

The Phase-3 lines are expected to carry a daily average of 9.12 lakh passengers by 2051.



City will have 220.2 km of Metro rail network

A release from PIB said on operationalisation of Phase-3, Bengaluru city will have 220.2-km of active Metro rail network. The project will become operational by 2029, it added. The release said, "It will provide direct connectivity to the airport and Outer Ring Road east as a continuous ring connecting major IT clusters and connectivity to various parts of the city." The Blue Line from Silk Board to KR Pura covers the eastern part of ORR and it will integrate with Phase-3 at Hebbal.

A boost for Namma Bengaluru's infrastructure... The metro network and the city expands with the Cabinet approving 2 new corridors consisting of 30 more stations. This will enhance the commuter experience and boost ease of living

Four GPs likely to be brought under BBMP

MOHAMMED YACOOB
@ Bengaluru

KUMBALGODU Gram Panchayat (GP), which is sandwiched between Bidadi and Kengeri on Mysuru Road, Shanthipura GP near Electronics City, Konappana Agrahara GP and Sarjapur GP are likely to brought under BBMP limits, according to sources in the palike.

Sources associated with the BBMP restructuring committee said Yashwanthpur MLA ST Somashekar met Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar recently and requested him to bring Kumbalgodu GP under the palike. This apart, Konappana Agrahara, Sarjapura, Shanthipura and Madavara GPs are also proposed to be brought under palike's jurisdiction.

"At a function on Thursday, Somashekar stated that he is for development and favoured bringing Kumbalgodu GP under the palike limits. Earlier, he wanted a separate town municipal council involving areas such as K Gollahalli, H Gollahalli, Sulikere and Kumbalgodu. But with these areas witnessing a rapid growth, the MLA now wants them to be merged with the palike," said GB Basavaraju, secretary, Kumbalgodu gram panchayat.

Similarly, officials at Konappana Agrahara GP said the population in their GP limits has exceeded 50,000 and rapid industrialisation is taking place there. "If the areas coming under this GP are merged with the palike, more revenue can be generated by way of taxes. Moreover, people of these areas will get amenities such as underground drainage, drinking water and roads," they added.

According to an official from Shanthipura GP, in 2011 the panchayat had a population of 12,000. Now, it may have crossed 40,000. The areas under this panchayat have not been developed. They will be developed if they are brought under the palike. Problems such as lack of tar roads, drainages and drinking water will be resolved, he said.

> If the areas coming under this GP are merged with the palike, more revenue can be generated by way of taxes. Moreover, people of these areas will get amenities such as drinking water and roads

Meanwhile, officials in the palike said not only these areas, but also several other gram panchayats on the outskirts of the city will be brought under the Palike if the Greater Bengaluru Authority becomes a reality as it proposes to have 10 city corporations.

The palike now has 857 sqkm under its limits. If GBA comes into being, it will have 1,400 sqkm area. The GBA Bill was referred to a House committee recently.

KIA gets Level 5 accreditation for zero emission, first in Asia

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

KEMPEGOWDA International Airport has become the first in Asia to receive the Airports Council International's (ACI) highest Level 5 accreditation. This certification is with retrospective effect from May 5 this year, said an official release.

The airport, operated by Bangalore International Airport Limited (BIAL), has made a remarkable 95.6% reduction in Scope 1 and 2 Greenhouse Gas (GHG) emissions, attaining the highest emission elimination by an Indian airport. This was achieved seven years ahead of the initial target of 2030.

The release added that the airport has made significant strides in its decarbonisation journey and has set new benchmarks by transitioning to 100% renewable electricity and implementing initiatives focusing on sustainable mobility and green infrastructure.

To offset its residual emissions, it has procured ACI approved carbon units from verified carbon removal projects, it said. "Looking ahead towards 2030, BLR Airport has committed to offsetting residual emissions through in-house green landscape projects, further demonstrating its dedication to build a sustainable future," it added.

Hari Marar, Managing Director and CEO of BIAL said, "Achieving Net Zero Greenhouse Gas Emissions seven years ahead of our target is a testament to BLR Airport's unwavering commitment to sustainability."

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

17th August: Jupiter, planet of extravagance, is in a lively location. In my opinion, we're in a twelve-month cycle which favours people who are actually prepared to put in the practical work necessary to achieve their ambitions. Dreamers, fantasisers and time-wasters may be left on the sidelines - at least until this time next year!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Professional Ariens are favoured today. Or, rather, they may be unable to stop work and relax! What the stars actually indicate is that you'll be in a mind to pursue practical ambitions, but that all other circumstances in your life have to agree. A difficult balancing act, I'm sure, but one well within your powers.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
There's a sense that anything is possible. But, you also know that, if it were, you'd never be allowed to get away with it. And that, I suppose, is a familiar Taurean dilemma. Still, you can safely assume that the next two weeks are a better time to consolidate everything you've achieved so far rather than going off on a new tack.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
There seems to be only so much you can do at the moment without arousing criticism. Today, your bright suggestions are likely to elicit the response 'so why don't you get on and do it, then?' And, at that point, you'll have to figure out the practical details or forget the whole idea.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Many of you will begin to make the break into a new, more confident phase. The next two weeks find your energy building up to a mild, monthly climax, one which favours all fresh starts and new beginnings. Time to break the habits of a lifetime, perhaps. Well, yes, it is, but then it's not compulsory!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You've probably got a lot on your plate today. But that's only a problem if you didn't expect it. If you sense that your tasks and duties are piling up, your worst response is to look the other way. Your best plan is to tackle them as they arise, with all the efficiency and practical common sense at your disposal.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Your stars are rather pleasant, I'd say. It's all down to the Moon, really, which is in a position to offer emotional support. Or, perhaps, it doesn't so much offer it as signify the fact that people close to you, particularly family members, and especially younger relations, will be prepared to back you!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
There's a sense of cosmic crunch today. What I mean by that is that you might not have too much choice about what you do. Or, at least, you might not have too much choice about the circumstances you're obliged to deal with. What you can do, of course, is make your normal, measured response.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You have a rare skill: bringing together your bright-est ideas with a sense of practical, common sense, down-to-earth skill - added to a fair degree of emotional wisdom. That's what your Moon indicates, at any rate. You'll have to decide which of your plans you put into effect, and that's just the beginning!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Sagittarians divide into two groups today. There are those who are as high as kites on the one hand and those who are flat out, flaked out and worn out on the other hand. I don't think many of you will be in the middle, but whichever group you fall into it's time to preserve your achievements and conserve your energy.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
The planets are all changing tra-cks and sign-als which were oncered, switch to green - and vice versa. That's why you're being presented with a one yearly opportunity to change direction, or even to put the breaks on all together. You may be feel-ing a little over-emotional today, but then what a great chance that gives you to get in touch with your deeper feelings.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The questions you face could at first seem to be utterly trivial - such as whether to go out and party or stay in and be quiet. But actually there is as symptom of a more long-range adjustment, one which is likely to colour your affairs over the next month. A busy, worthwhile, productive month is coming for many of you.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Take heart from today's Venus and Jupiter patterns. These planets are the perfect picture of a poetic, soulful, contented, romantic and idealistic day. There are the usual practical necessities of life to cope with, so my advice is to get all burdens some, routine chores out of the way as early as possible.

Gang of five cheats Kodagu-based estate owner of ₹2.21 cr, held

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE cyber wing sleuths of the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) reportedly arrested a gang of five criminals from Bengaluru and Dubai, and recovered cash worth around Rs 1.7 crores, foreign currency and a high end car. The accused extorted around Rs 2.2 crores from a 75-year-old estate owner using the Fedex scam route. The accused cheated the victim by making calls from Dubai.

Ramesh (name changed) hailing from Siddapura in Kodagu, in his complaint stated that he received a call from a person claiming to be an employee of FedEX. The accused threatened Ramesh of smuggling 200 grams of MDMA, and 'transferred' the call to his associates who claimed to be police officers. The accused asked the complainant to transfer money to the accounts sent by them in order to solve the case. Believing the callers, the septuagenarian transferred Rs 2.21 crores between May 11 and May 28, 2024. The victim sent the money through RTGS, in two transactions. When the accused called repeatedly demanding more money, the victim reported the matter to the police.

The victim registered a case with Kodagu CEN police, which was later transferred to CID for further investigations. Investigations into the case revealed that the money had been transferred to around 26 bank accounts in several North Indian states and Dubai. The money found in these accounts have been freezed.

The accused are identified as Mohammed Shakib, Mohammed Ayaan, Ahasaan Hansari, Saloman Raja, all from Bengaluru and Yusuf Set, from Dubai. The CID officials have recovered Rs 1.7 crores. The CID officials suspect that the accused are part of a professional gang. As the accused had used the accounts of Indian banks in the scam, it was easy to trace them.

JDLP leader B Suresh Babu pacifies Hemanth's relative, while she was protesting against Bescom at the mortuary in Tumakuru on Friday

Electrocution of school boy, kin protest against Bescom

TUMAKURU: Tension prevailed at the district hospital mortuary here on Friday, as the parents and relatives of a Class III boy who was electrocuted on Thursday staged a protest, alleging that the BESCOM was responsible for the incident. Hemanth (8) died hours after taking part in the independence day celebration at the government school at Huyildore Kaval in Sira taluk. He accidentally touched a guy wire which had the electricity passing in it. The victim's father Thimmaiah is a coolie who is hearing impaired and mother Jayalakshmi works as labourer in the farms. But the BESCOM officials allegedly suspected it to be electrocution, and claimed that it was death due to cardiac arrest. The residents, along with the Bhovi community leaders staged the protest at the mortuary. JDLP leader B Suresh Babu visited them and promised compensation from the government. The police, however have filed an FIR against the concerned AEE with the BESCOM and investigation is on, he informed. The post mortem report will ascertain the cause of the death, sources said. ENS

Missing techie found in Noida

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

A missing case involving a 32-year-old software engineer from Bengaluru took a dramatic turn on Friday with the techie revealing that he did not go missing, but left home 10 days ago over differences with his wife.

Vipin Gupta was traced near a mall in Noida, Uttar Pradesh, and was brought to the city in the morning. Gupta went "missing" on August 6 and his wife filed a complaint at Kodigehalli police station on August 8.

DCP (Northeast) Sajeeth VJ told TNIE that Gupta was traced in Noida based on CCTV footage from various places and other technical clues. He was found near the mall. He changed his appearance by getting his head tonsured. From Bengaluru, Gupta travelled to Tirupati, Kolkata, Bhubaneswar, Lucknow and other places before arriving in Noida, Sajeeth said.

Another senior police officer said that Gupta and his wife had a strained relationship. Because of this, Gupta left home without informing his wife. He did this in the past too. He was away from home for 10 days and was found in Goa, the officer added.

The police have warned him that he should inform them about his travel plans before leaving home. Further investigations are on.

Shop worker brandishes pistol in Insta reel, owner in trouble

YATHIRAJU @ Bengaluru

A car owner landed in trouble for leaving his pistol negligently on the dashboard of his car, that was dropped at a car accessories store on JC Road for fixing of floor mats and cooling paper. The vehicle was used by an employee of the shop to make reels, which were later tagged from his Instagram account 'police car accessories' to the X accounts of the Bengaluru City Police and its chief.

SJ Park police booked a case against car owner Sathish Babu BV, a resident of New Thippasandra, shop owner Mohammed Dastigar and employee Mohammed Tousif, after tracing the reel that was tagged to police X account. Sathish Babu moved a city court for anticipatory bail.

The public prosecutor stated that offences alleged against the petitioner are very serious and there is prima facie material against him. The reel depicts Tousif holding a pistol in his left hand and posting it on his Instagram account 'police car accessories' to the tune of a Punjabi song. The report also stated that on July 16, 2024, somebody tagged an Instagram reel to the 'X' accounts of the city police, and commented that "using a gun inside the police car, recording video and uploading is creating terror and fear".

A preliminary inquiry disclosed that the pistol belonged to the petitioner, who stated that on July 13, about 1pm, he had kept his pistol, which had to be repaired, on the dashboard of his Hyundai Verna and left at the car shop to get the floor mat and cooling paper fixed.

He then went to Unity Building as he had a meeting with his auditor, returned around 4pm and gave his pistol for repair. Later, he came to know that the shop workers had taken the pistol, made reels and uploaded them on Instagram, which resulted in the crime being registered under the Arms Act against him, the shop owner and employee. He also produced a receipt by Aim Point, as proof of repair work done on the hammer of the pistol.

Sessions judge Jaishankar noted that there are no serious allegations against Babu, except that he had negligently kept his pistol in the car's dashboard. The allegation is that it was used for making reels by the other accused, but not for committing any offence, the judge said, granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

To celebrate the 50th anniversary of the renaming of Karnataka, the state government launched the 'Esarayu Karnataka, Usiragali Kannada' campaign on Friday, mandating that all government employees wear identity card tags in the state's symbolic red and yellow colours. Authorities have been instructed to provide red-yellow tags to all officials and staff

No bypolls yet, but suspense on over 3 seats

Yogeshwara, Bommai's son, Tukaram's daughter, Sriramulu, Nikhil all aiming to contest

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @Bengaluru

AS the Election Commission of India (ECI) did not announce the dates for the bypolls to three Assembly constituencies in Karnataka on Friday, the three major political parties will now have ample time to prepare for the elections.

With this, the suspense over candidates to the Channapatna, Sandur and Shiggaon constituencies will continue for some more time. JDS, Congress and BJP respectively held these seats, which are prestigious for them. The BJP high command will decide on Sandur and Shiggaon, while Union Minister of Steel and Heavy Industries HD Kumaraswamy, who is also state JDS president, will call the shots with the Channapatna candidature. He held the seat before becoming Mandya MP, and he is planning to field one of his family members, either his wife Anitha or son Nikhil, sources said.

But former minister and BJP

MLC CP Yogeshwara too is keen to contest from the seat, and has threatened to run as an independent if he is denied the ticket. Of late, he seems to have patched up with Deputy Chief Minister and KPCC president DK Shivakumar, which has caught the eye of political circles, and some believe that he could join Congress. "It is going to be a tough fight between Congress and NDA as both are in power at the state and Centre. Yogeshwara can give a tough fight only if he takes one of the sides as a candidate," an analysts suggested.

Former chief minister Basavaraj Bommai resigned from Shiggaon and is now BJP MP from Haveri. His son Bharat, who campaigned for his father, is projecting himself as the BJP candidate from Shiggaon, sources said. But Srikant Dundigouda, who switched to BJP from Congress to support Bommai, too is eyeing the seat. In Congress, there is intense competition with over ten leaders, including Haveri District Congress Committee president Sanjeev Neeralagi, former minister R Shankar, Yasir Khan Pathan and Syed Ajeempeer Khadri, aiming to contest. "It is to be seen whether there will be the alleged adjustment politics this time too between some leaders of Congress and BJP to let Bharat win," said a Congress leader.

The Sandur seat was vacated by Congress leader E Tukaram, who became the Ballari MP. He had agreed to contest the parliamentary election only under the condition that the Assembly seat is given to his daughter Souparnika. But with the political scenario changing and B Nagendra resigning as a minister after the ST Corporation scam, Tukaram could contest the bypoll if the party high command promises him a berth in the Siddaramaiah cabinet. Souparnika will then make her debut either in Sandur or Ballari constituency if the situation demands, sources said.

BJP, which made use of the services of veteran ST Nayaka leader B Sriramulu to garner the community's votes, may ask him again to contest from Sandur, where he had lost to Tukaram in 2023.

Channapatna, Sandur and Shiggaon constituencies were held by JDS, Congress and BJP respectively. The BJP high command will decide on Sandur and Shiggaon, while Union Minister of Steel and Heavy Industries HD Kumaraswamy will call the shots with the Channapatna candidature

CM: Release dam water to lakes, to free up space for rainwater

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Friday reviewed the flood situation across the state owing to heavy rain and suggested that steps should be taken to release water to lakes and tanks from reservoirs. This will leave reservoirs with space for more water if the rain continues.

"Since all reservoirs in the state have filled up up to 89% of their storage capacity, based on the rain forecast, appropriate amount of water should be released to lakes in advance to prevent the sudden accumulation of water in the reservoirs and causing floods," CM said while chairing a meeting with officials to discuss precautionary measures and preparedness.

Between June 1 and August 15, the state received 22% more than the normal rainfall, with Chamarajanagar, Mandya and Tumakuru districts recording the highest. The India Meteorological Department has forecast that there will be more than normal rainfall in the southern and northern hinterlands, the coast, and the highlands in the next four weeks.

It is estimated that 81,589 hectares of crop have been damaged due to the rain till now. "As soon as the final report is received, action will be taken to distribute compensation," the CM said.

Siddaramaiah also stressed on obtaining reports on the fitness of bridges from the Public Works Department and repairing connecting roads so that vehicular movement is not impacted.

The meeting decided that all bridges and roads should be checked continuously, and vehicular traffic should be restricted on submerged bridges. Deputy Commissioners and Zilla Panchayat Chief Executive Officers should instruct officials to be vigilant and ensure that canals, and drains in cities and towns, are free to channel rainwater.

TACKLING FLOODS

- ₹210 crore released for repair of state highways
- Health officials instructed to take precautions against infectious diseases that may arise during floods
- Dengue cases have declined, but officials should keep eye on spread of Chikungunya and Malaria.
- Sowing completed on 70 lakh hectares against the target of 82 lakh hectares
- There were 67 deaths in rain-related incidents and ₹329 lakh was given as compensation in 66 cases
- Anganwadis, school buildings, bridges and canals should be in good shape
- Panchayat task force provided ₹20,000 crore grant
- People staying in dilapidated houses should be vacated and rehabilitated

IN BENGALURU

BBMP chief commissioner Tushar Girinath instructed to review the situation daily

- Hold meetings with Zonal Commissioners, take precautionary measures and assign responsibility to engineers. In case of dereliction of duty, action should be taken
- Control rooms have been set up
- Open large drains identified and fixed
- Encroachment of stormwater drains should be cleared
- Enchance coordination between BDA, BWSSB, BMRCL and BBMP

Stir against Vachana Darshana on Aug 20

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Mandya/Bengaluru

MANY Lingayat organisations have announced an agitation against the controversial book "Vachana Darshana", which they claim distorts the teachings of social reformer Basavanna.

The protest will be held in Bengaluru on August 20, where participants will gather in front of the statue of Basavanna at Chalukya Circle. The controversy is around the depiction and interpretation of Vachanas — spiritual verses by Lingayat Sharanas, who historically challenged the caste system and advocated equality and social reform.

Critics argued that the book misrepresents the Vachanas and the philosophy of Lingayatism, the religious sect founded by Basavanna. They also objected to the portrayal of Basavanna on the book's cover, claiming that it disrespects his image and teachings. They alleged that the book is part of a larger conspiracy to divide the community and undermine the egalitarian principles of Lingayatism. Prominent figures, including Basavayogiprabhu Swamiji of Basavakendra in Narasimharajapura, have expressed their support to the protest.

"The book distorts the essence of vachanas by equating them with traditional religious texts like the Vedas, which goes against the very ethos of Basavanna's teachings," the swamiji said.

The protesters argued that the Vachanas have been coopted for political reasons, particularly after the recent Lok Sabha elections.

BJP top brass calls anti-BYV faction to New Delhi to straighten things up

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @Belagavi

THE simmering discontent among some top state BJP leaders against state party president BY Vijayendra has made the party top brass sit up and take note. To cool the cauldron before it puts the party in crisis, the high command has asked Ramesh Jarkiholi and Basangouda Patil Yatnal, who have led the faction, to come to New Delhi on Sunday to talk it out.

Recently, besides Jarkiholi and Yatnal, former MLA Pratap Simha, GM Siddeshwara and Annasaheb Jolle huddled up for a meeting at a private resort in Belagavi. There, they decided to hold a padayatra to Ballari as a counter to the recently held BJP-JDS Myusuru march, which was planned and executed by Vijayendra.

The group is roping as many leaders as possible ahead of the Delhi visit to prove it strength to the high command. Though the purported aim of the Ballari padayatra is to highlight corruption in the Congress-led state government, the real reason is to show the group's strength, sources said.

Ramesh Jarkiholi

Basangouda Yatnal

The faction had planned to meet again in Bengaluru on August 21. But it was called off after the BJP-RSS leadership's summons to Jarkiholi and Yatnal. The next date for the Bengaluru meeting will be decided later, sources close to Jarkiholi said.

Sources in the group said many of them, including Yatnal, are upset with Vijayendra because they were neglected by him and former CM Yediyurappa during the recent Lok Sabha elections. While Simha and Siddeshwara were denied tickets, others feel they have had a raw deal at the hands of Vijayendra and Yediyurappa during the polls.

Yatnal, who has been opposing the leadership of Yediyurappa and Vijayendra for a long time, on Thursday said their group should not be branded rebel or disgruntled leaders of BJP, but should be rightly called "loyal party workers".

"Our group aims at freeing BJP from adjustment politics prevalent in the state unit. We want to strengthen the party in the state and achieve its potential glory," he said.

The visit of Yatnal and Jarkiholi to New Delhi is crucial as it will also decide the fate of Ballari padayatra and Bengaluru meeting.

If the high command refuses to give its assent, both the march and meeting will be cancelled. But when the two leaders meet the top brass, they will definitely talk about their issues with Vijayendra's leadership, sources said.

K'taka run by 'pickpocket govt': BJP leader

Bengaluru: BJP national spokesperson Shehzad Poonawalla on Friday hit out at the Congress government in the state, terming it a "pickpocket government" that is looting funds meant for the welfare of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.
Speaking to media persons in Bengaluru, he asked why Congress leader Rahul Gandhi was not talking about crimes against women in Karnataka. The government has no funds for development works, and that is why it has increased the prices of petrol and diesel, and hiked the power tariff and stamp duty.
In Karnataka, 1,200 farmers died by suicide, but Congress leaders are not talking about it, he said. He also slammed the West Bengal government over its handling of the rape and murder case of a doctor at a government hospital in Kolkata and demanded Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee's resignation.
The BJP leader questioned why the I.N.D.I.A bloc leaders are not talking about what is happening in West Bengal. ENS

Ahead of fin panel visit, CM holds crucial meeting

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru:

AHEAD of the visit of the 16th Finance Commission, headed by its chairman Arvind Panagariya, former vice-chairman of NITI Aayog, on August 29, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah held a crucial meeting with finance department officials at his residence here on Friday.

It was decided to put forth a memorandum to the Commission to compensate for the alleged injustice meted out by the Centre, which had denied the 15th Finance Commission's recommendation of Rs 5,495 crore as a special package. Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman had denied it, saying the 15th Finance Commission did not recommend it in its final report.

The issue of reduction in the state's share of central taxes from 4.71% in the 14th Finance Commission to 3.64% in the 15th Finance Commission -- which led to a loss of approximately Rs 62,098 crore over five years -- would be raised, sources said.

The state will also raise issues with regard to GST, and its share in collection of cess on fuel. For every Rs 100 paid to the Centre, the state is getting a mere Rs12-13 in its account, despite being the second largest tax generator in the country after Maharashtra, according to Siddaramaiah. The issue would be discussed with the Finance Commission, seeking its intervention to revise guidelines to rectify the imbalance, an official who took part in the meeting said.

Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda, CM's Financial Adviser Basavaraj Rayareddy, Additional Chief Secretary LK Atheeq and others were present at the meeting. Another meeting will be held ahead of the Commission's visit, where a clear-cut proposal will be discussed, the official added.

CM hosts Foxconn chief, discusses firm's big plans for K'taka

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah on Friday assured Taiwanese electronics manufacturer Foxconn of complete support to its projects in Karnataka, and requested the firm further invest in the state.

"We assure you of our complete support and commitment to ensuring Foxconn gets all the assistance required in this process. Our government is always ready to support you, and I request that you further invest in Karnataka, which has huge investment potential," the CM said during a meeting with Young Liu, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of Hon Hai Technology Group (Foxconn). The CM hosted a dinner for Liu and senior Foxconn officials.

Siddaramaiah said Karnataka has established itself as a powerhouse in the electronics system design and manufacturing (ESDM) sector. "To support and facilitate competitive electronics manufacturing, Karnataka offers a comprehensive range of advantages. From efficient logistics and reliable power supply to a skilled workforce and a resilient vendor base, our state is well-equipped to meet the needs of this dynamic industry," the CM said.

He said the Foxconn project will create substantial employment opportunities within the state and boost the local economy, while also empowering the workforce and enhancing the overall prosperity of the region. A statement issued by the CM's office said Foxconn is setting up an iPhone assembly plant (Project Elephant) in Karnataka. The company has acquired 300 acres of land in the ITIR Industrial Area, located in Doddaballapura and Devanahalli taluks of Bengaluru Rural district.

The project, with an investment of Rs 22,000 crore, is expected to generate employment for over 50,000 people. Currently, work is progressing on this project. The commerce and industries department, in collaboration with other departments, is working on securing all necessary licence approvals for the project. Power and water supply specific to the project are being planned and implemented, a statement said.

Liu said, "The unit in Karnataka will soon become the second-largest Foxconn plant after the one in China. Our investment will not stop here; in the future, we plan to explore other sectors also."

"Additionally, Foxconn is setting up a manufacturing and assembly facility for mechanical components in EV applications (Project Cheetah). The company has leased private land in Bengaluru district for this project," the statement said.

Industries Minister MB Patil said, "The state welcomes more investment without hesitation. KIADB, KPTCL, the Fire Brigade and pollution control boards are working with dedication to ensure the smooth implementation of Foxconn's project. We have already allocated 300 acres of land to the company."

Dy CM DK Shivakumar said, "Karnataka has the best business-friendly policies in the country, and it is heartening to see Foxconn investing here."

Development works in Western Ghats put on hold

Bengaluru: The state government has put all land conversion projects on hold and will not permit any developmental works in the Western Ghats region till new zoning regulations are formulated. Forest Minister Eshwar B Khandre issued the orders to the deputy chief secretaries and district administrations on Friday following a meeting with officials. Khandre said till the Kasturirangan report, as notified by the central government recently, is discussed in the cabinet and a discussion is held, the orders will continue to stay. Expressing concern over increasing occurrence of landslides and other calamities in many parts of the Western Ghats, increasing cases of encroachments and felling of trees, Khandre said unplanned development is the prime cause. ENS

Ordered joint survey of my coffee estate: George

Chikkamagaluru: Energy Minister KJ George said he has instructed the forest and revenue departments to conduct a joint survey of coffee estates in his ownership and other estates held in partnership, to check if there is any encroachment of government land. Karnataka Jan Shakti state secretary KL Ashok had alleged that 200 out of 800 acres in Kattinakahn estate, owned by the minister, in the district is encroached land and challenged George to reclaim encroached land from his estate fist before evicting poor farmers from their lands. "The government land in my estate near Masagali was encroached before I purchased it. Soon after I came to know it was government land, I handed it over to the government. I don't know whether there is encroachment in the estates I own now. Therefore, I asked for a joint survey in my coffee estates," George said. ENS

ISRO to transfer SSLV tech for commercial production

Move will enable industries to build rockets, contribute to the country's growing space sector, says Somanath

S V KRISHNA CHAITANYA
@ Sriharikota

FOLLOWING the successful launch of the Earth Observation Satellite (EOS-08) by the Small Satellite Launch Vehicle (SSLV-D3) on Friday, the Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) is now ready to transfer the SSLV technology for commercial production.

Speaking to reporters after the launch, ISRO Chairman S Somanath said, "We can now declare that the process of SSLV development is complete. We are in the process of transferring the technology to Indian industries." This would mark the first time satellite launch vehicle technology is being transferred to the private sector for commercial production in India, he said. The move is expected to enable Indian industries to build smaller rockets, enhancing their capabilities and contributing to the country's growing space sector, Somanath said.

The SSLV has been designed and developed by ISRO as a cost-effective solution for placing mini, micro, and nano satellites weighing up to 500kg into the Low Earth Orbit. The vehicle is 34 metres tall and comprises of three solid propulsion stages and a liquid terminal stage. This design offers significant advantages, including low-cost access to space, minimal launch infrastructure, and the flexibility for on-demand launches. The launch vehicle can be launch-ready within just three days of planning.

The SSLV's journey, however, has not been without challenges. The first launch in August 2022 was a near miss, prompting ISRO to make necessary corrections. The second flight in February 2023 was successful, and Friday's third developmental flight further solidified the SSLV's reliability. Somanath mentioned that the launch vehicle will now be realised by NewSpace India Ltd (NSIL), the commercial arm of ISRO.

In preparation for the technology transfer, the Indian National Space Promotion and Authorization Center (IN-SPACe) is in the process of identifying an industry consortium that will take up SSLV production.

This consortium will work closely with ISRO over the next two years to fully understand and adopt the technology, and build two rockets. "Once they are successfully launched, domestic industries will be free to manufacture any number of rockets in their manufacturing facilities," he said.

It is not just about transferring manufacturing technology but also sharing the knowledge and expertise required to build the rocket, Somanath said. "They need to enter ISRO, work with us and learn the technique," he explained.

Gaganyaan first test flight in December: ISRO chief

ISRO Chairman S Somanath said the first test flight of the Gaganyaan project is expected to happen this December. Official sources said the mock-up trial of cryogenic stage (C32) would be conducted as early as the end of August. Somanath said, "We are currently working on the first mission of Gaganyaan, called G1, which is an unmanned mission. The rocket stages, including the S200, L1 and C32, are all at the Satish Dhawan Space Centre. We need to complete the wiring and testing. Our target is to have the entire system ready by November, with a possible launch in December." The top official said the integration of the crew module was taking place at Vikram Sarabhai Space Centre in Trivandrum, and the Crew Escape hardware was ready.

Medical students protest against the rape and murder of a PG student in a Kolkata hospital, in Bengaluru on Friday | VINOD KUMAR T

Docs' strike to hit medical services today, tomorrow

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

ALL medical services in the state, except emergency care, will be hit from 6 am on Saturday to Sunday 6 am in view of doctors joining the nationwide strike called by IMA to protest against the rape and murder of a PG student at RG Kar Medical College and Hospital in Kolkata and the attack on students agitating there on Wednesday.

The strike that began on Monday was confined to government hospitals. But from Saturday, services in private and government hospitals will be affected with doctors from both sectors deciding to back the IMA call. Medical services, including OPDs, elective surgeries, and modern medicine will be affected.

On Friday, Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao said there will be no inconvenience to patients as essential services and emergency departments will function as usual. Senior medical officials, however, said that hospitals will be under pressure as services offered by OPDs will be suspended.

Meanwhile, the health department said that all district health and family welfare officers, district surgeons, and hospital administrative officers have been instructed to ensure continuous emergency medical services. No leave will be granted to doctors to prevent any interruption in emergency care, it stated in its order.

A senior doctor from Bangalore Medical College and Research Institute (BMCRI) said that around 2,500 people would visit the institute's OPDs daily. Of them, around 500 would get admitted. With the suspension of medical services, these patients will be affected.

The Private Hospitals and Nursing Homes' Association (PHANA) - Karnataka, wrote to its doctors and other staff members on Friday stating that the association will back the IMA's strike call.

As healthcare providers, PHANA condemns the increasing violence against medical professionals. PHANA, in solidarity with IMA, calls for stronger laws and their strict enforcement to prevent violence against healthcare professionals, and enhanced security in healthcare facilities, the letter stated.

MP backs docs' demand

Bengaluru Rural MP and cardiologist Dr CN Manjunath visited the Freedom Park on Friday and spoke to members of the Karnataka Association of Resident Doctors (KARD), who have launched an agitation demanding that their stipend be increased and medical college fees be reduced.

PSI's wife held for filing fake theft plaint

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Koramangala police picked up the wife of a police sub-inspector (PSI) for allegedly filing a false complaint that unidentified miscreants had decamped with cash worth Rs 12 lakh and gold valuables, after tying her and gagging her at her residence. She had lodged a complaint on July 11, alleging that there was robbery at her house, and miscreants fled with cash and 114 grams of gold ornaments.

However, during the investigation, it was revealed that the she had given the cash and gold ornaments to her mother and had cooked up the robbery story.

Speaking to reporters, City Police Commissioner B Dayananda said that something was amiss after analyzing CCTV.

Upon questioning it was revealed that she had handed over the money to her mother, to help her, and falsely reported robbery. Commissioner added that if the PSI is involved in the false case, legal action will be taken against him.

NEED FAIR PROBE ON KOLKATA RAPE & MURDER, LAW TO PROTECT DOCS

THE rape and murder of a 31-year-old trainee doctor at a premier medical college in Kolkata has led to an uprising of medical professionals and members of civil society in many parts of India. At the heart of the matter is the abject lack of security faced by health service providers—doctors, nurses and other staff—at their workplaces, especially in government-run facilities. Alongside this is the frustration of women, who face sexual violence on a daily basis and are faced with apathy, ignorance or impunity from society, the political establishment and state apparatus. The Kolkata incident has foregrounded the intersection of challenges faced by women health professionals. First, the victim was attacked while alone and asleep in a seminar hall where she was resting as the institution—the 138-year-old R G Kar Medical College—did not have a rest room for on-call doctors. This is shockingly common—doctors across the nation have pointed out the lack of facilities at government institutions for them to rest. Second, the events following her death—her parents' assertion that they were initially told she had died by suicide and the college principal not filing a complaint with the police—have only led to suspicions, even from the Calcutta High Court, of further foul play.

The state government seemed to indicate with whom it stood—not the victim or doctors—when the principal, orthopaedics professor Dr Sandeep Ghosh, was reassigned to another prestigious posting hours after he acceded to the students' demand for him to resign. Meanwhile, the tragedy became political fuel for parties of every hue, each staging dramatics without concrete action. The blame game escalated after a mob barged in on Wednesday night and vandalised a section of the college. Enough is enough.

The Central Bureau of Investigation, which has taken over the probe on court orders, must ensure a thorough, transparent and fair investigation that ensures justice is served. Now is the time for the Union government to revive its legislation ensuring protection to health professionals. Finally, the battle towards a safe and equal world for women and sexual minorities is a long one. Today's anger must remain as widespread and as fresh, and must force us to introspect and overcome our own prejudices and complicity. Societal change begins at home.

GIANT LEAPS REQUIRED FOR VIKSIT BHARAT BY 2047

THE central theme of PM Narendra Modi's 11th independence day speech was achieving a Viksit Bharat or developed India by 2047. To do so, he stressed that reforms were necessary at every level of the governance structure; he exhorted states and local governments, including panchayats and municipalities, to initiate at least two reforms a year directly benefiting common man. As against expectations that a coalition government may weaken the BJP's resolve for reforms, he assured citizens of his commitment to taking big steps not limited to ink on paper or a few days of applause, but driven by an intention to strengthen the nation.

There are no precise definitions of what constitutes a developed nation, but one metric that is often used is gross per capita income. India, with a per capita income of $2,392 a year, is currently classified by the World Bank as a lower-middle income economy. To emerge as a high-income economy, the per capita income should exceed $14,005. The government's policy think-tank Niti Aayog, which recently published an approach paper, estimated that for India to emerge as a developed nation in next two decades, its per capita income should increase by about eight times. Clearly, that appears to be a long shot. Perhaps, a good place to start would be to first focus on cracking the upper-middle income bracket of $4,516-14,005.

As Modi pointed out, this is a golden era for India and its youth are central to its development. But for a country that intends to take giant leaps, there are not too many opportunities to absorb its growing workforce. As the Economic Survey 2023-24 noted, India must create over 7.85 million non-farm jobs every year until 2030. The government's reforms push in the manufacturing sector and the employment schemes announced in the Union budget are steps in the right direction; but we need to do much more to generate jobs and arrest rising unemployment. Above all, education reforms are the cornerstones for improving skill sets and for ensuring that freshers are readily employable. The government must also simultaneously address socio-economic challenges such as healthcare and sustainable development. That is because human development indicators are another key metric for a developed nation. So India must strive for inclusive growth, ensuring every citizen has equal access to necessities and opportunities.

QUICK TAKE

WELCOMING RAMSAR TAGS

THE Ramsar list, named after the Iranian city where a Unesco environment treaty in 1971 agreed to protect wetlands of internal importance, holds immense significance in an era of quickening climate change. So when Villupuram's Kazhuveli and Tiruppur's Nanjarayan bird sanctuaries in Tamil Nadu recently got listed to bring India's total to 85 Ramsar sites, it was reason to celebrate. The 5,277 hectares covered by the sanctuaries are home to more than 750 species of flora and fauna, especially migratory water birds. What we must remember is that with any such tag comes the responsibility of protecting the sites. We hope our governments will collaborate to protect our natural heritage.

Rahul Gandhi's performance as leader of opposition in the Lok Sabha left a lot to be desired. The responsibility for ensuring good debates falls on all parties and the media

PREVENTING POLITICS OF PANDEMONIUM

VINAY SAHASRABUDDHE

Senior BJP leader

SOURAV ROY

PEOPLE watching Rahul Gandhi in the Lok Sabha during the June and July sessions were hoping that his new tag of leader of opposition would have made him a bit more serious and responsible. But alas, old habits die hard. In his first speech on the motion of thanks to the president's address, he tried to usurp the Hindutva agenda. In his speech on the budget, he returned to dividing society to carve out a vote bank. Every time the Congress sees such an opportunity, instead of shaping its own narrative it copies what the British did—dividing the people for the sake of politics.

In the first session of the current Lok Sabha, Rahul Gandhi had to surrender to Lord Shiva and display the deity's portrait in the House. He tried to make the point that the BJP can't be equated with the entire Hindu community. Indirectly he suggested that the BJP-RSS can't be called the sole custodians of Hindu interests. With this, Gandhi tried to move few steps farther from his 2018 assertion that wrongly equated Hindus with Brahmins.

However, the credibility of the Congress's attempt to occupy the Hindutva space cannot stand the scrutiny of history—of the recent past or a distant one. If Rahul Gandhi's 2018 'janeuadhari' statement smacked of a me-too approach, in 2024 he is openly eyeing all believing Hindus—an exercise the Congress is clearly unaccustomed to. The party's record of taking Hindus for granted can't be hidden behind a Shiva portrait. Rahul must know that his party is incapable of even imagining the hurt Hindus have been serially subjected to by successive Congress regimes.

The history of the Congress's keenness to win the hearts of Muslims started from its attempt to have Muslims in its fold during the independence struggle. The party wanted to paper over a communal divide that was a spiritual divide too. But refusing to learn from some Muslim leaders' recalcitrant approach that eventually led to the partition, the Congress continued to pamper some leaders who eventually exploited this approach and earned a kind of veto power. Post-independence, the Congress's cowardice continued, thanks to the lure of en-bloc Muslim votes.

During the pre-partition era, some instances of condoning violence by Muslims emboldened the party to ignore the fundamental rights of Hindus. In the post-independence era, the party became a habitual appeaser. So much so, that for all its key policy decisions "How would Muslims react?" became a major determining factor.

Notwithstanding its rediscovered love for the Constitution, successive Congress governments have disregarded three key points of the guiding principles. Abrogation of Article 370, introduction of a common civil code and banning cow slaughter across the country are, in a way, constitutional mandates. In the pre-partition days, the likely reaction of Muslims resulted in the Congress accepting a truncated 'Vande Mataram' as our national song and disregarding Babasaheb Ambedkar's suggestion to have Sanskrit as our national language.

So Hindus know the Congress doesn't mind playing vote-bank politics even at the cost of national interest. There are at least three instances in recent history—its dealing with illegal infiltration from Bangladesh, handling of the Shah Bano case and espousal of faith-based quota for Muslims.

Come the budget session and the Congress leadership switched to harping on narrower identities by portraying itself as a protector of SCs, STs and OBCs. The mere political assertion of identities can't be an antidote to caste-based discrimination. One has to accept that neither the upper castes nor the scheduled castes or OBCs are monolithic blocks. There are deep internal divides along with notions of hierarchy. Politically exploiting the composition of finance ministry officials at a halwa ceremony is, therefore, just immature politics.

Besides, the Congress's record on social justice is utterly uninspiring. Jawaharlal Nehru's reservation about the quota system is on official records. Both Indira and Rajiv Gandhi were unenthusiastic about OBC quota. On the other hand, it was Atal Bihari Vajpayee who established a ministry for tribal affairs and converted the social welfare ministry into one for social justice.

Two other factors also merit attention—the deteriorating standards of parliamentary debates and the media coverage of House proceedings.

Once upon a time, House debates used to be educative, enlightening and listening to them would lead to some understanding of issues. Today, that hardly happens. There are occasions when members raising a starred question are absent while the answer is given. At times, especially in state legislatures, ministers are found wanting in preparation and understanding of issues.

The quality of debates is determined by both the treasury and opposition benches. Ruling party members are obviously supportive of the government, but they too can bring additional points to the government's attention. The opposition has always been clamouring for lengthier debates. But more often than not, they fail to add substantive dimensions to a debate.

In order to prevent rampant indulgence in a politics of pandemonium, it is also necessary to revisit the rules for parliamentary proceedings. Popular expectations have changed and the older style of debate and dialogue is becoming outdated. The emerging generations expect more purposive discussions, where an opposition MP doesn't hesitate to compliment the government if warranted and a minister accepts constructive criticism.

A part of the blame also goes to the media—its role in reporting parliamentary debates needs to be re-examined too. While MPs indulge in sensationalism aimed at grabbing headlines, the media obliges. The headlines go for fiery speeches and not logical arguments, sharp attacks and not profound comments, breaking of norms and not adherence to discipline.

If the media ignores or at least downplays sensationalism, constructive and contributive parliamentary behaviour can get an impetus. Regardless of their scholarly interventions full of arguments and homework, the speeches by several serious MPs rarely find mention. Unless this approach is changed, MPs would increasingly feel they are just heads to be counted. Ignoring their constructive observations is an affront to the electorate that sent the MPs to parliament.

Let's use the upcoming 75th anniversary of the Constitution's adoption to reform our parliamentary procedures and strengthen the people's confidence in parliamentary democracy.

THE SHORT AND LONG OF HINDENBURG SAGA

PRATIK KANJILAL

For years, the author has been speaking easy to a surprisingly tolerant public

SPEAKEASY

UNTIL the early 1990s, Indian media drew a fat red line between the business press and general interest newspapers, preventing both from reflecting all of reality. The business side was obsessed with wheat, wine and oil, happy to ignore politics. General papers obsessed on politics and sport, cramming economic, financial, trade and corporate news into a single page. Meanwhile, society was divided into a minority that appreciated the connections between business and politics, and the vast, clueless, well-meaning majority.

Media reflects the nation, whose schizophrenia ended after liberalisation made economic issues mainstream and growth became an election issue. About that time, Dhirubhai Ambani backed a newspaper that gave both worlds equal weight right in the masthead. Now, as the Hindenburg Research saga enters its second innings and the short-seller moves the crosshairs from the Adani family to the Buch family, from targeting buccaneering in business to impropriety in regulation, we are all older and know politics is just business as usual.

Despite pious protestations of innocence, Indian business and politics have always been bedfellows. Harshad Mehta brought Sebi into headlines and also infamously gave PM P V Narasimha Rao a suitcase with no key to open it with.

Now, Rahul Gandhi speculates Modi's government would fall when his pal Gautam Adani's transnational empire collapses. But after Hindenburg 2.0, the dominos could fall another way. By attacking the credibility of the regulator, the activist short-seller based in New York could do more damage to the political administration that backed her than to the business environment.

In brief, Hindenburg had accused Gautam Adani of pumping up his stocks by round-tripping his own money. Now, the crosshairs have moved up beyond the food chain. Hindenburg's target is Madhabi Puri Buch, the Sebi chief installed by the BJP, who says her finances are an open book. Could be a bestseller, who knows?

Hindenburg finds that via obfuscations, Buch invested offshore precisely where Gautam Adani's brother Vinod did. Inexplicably, she preferred high-risk instruments offshore over safe Indian funds she oversaw. Her husband took over her investments when she assumed office, but a spouse is not at arm's length, certainly not where the Hindu Undivided Family is a tax entity. Second, in response to Hindenburg's accusations against Adani, the Supreme Court mandated Sebi, under Buch, to investigate. She should have recused herself but didn't. Besides, the probe was never completed.

Sebi's remit is to maintain fairness. Surprisingly, instead of contesting Hindenburg's accusations with facts, the ruling party rants that the Congress's demand for a joint parliamentary probe is a 'wider conspiracy'. George Soros has predictably been trotted out, but he's just a splendid old Boojum, because the real George Soros is 94 and retired long ago. The right the world over needs a new Boojum and can't find one. Maybe because such a thing doesn't exist outside Lewis Carroll's universe.

WIKIMEDIA COMMONS

The intent of a short-seller named after a doomed zeppelin is hardly hidden. Now a second report from the research firm has trained its crosshairs on the market regulator. But as Hindenburg's report on the now-obscure electric car company Nikola revealed, a short-seller can be a useful devil

Hindenburg Research may look fishy because short-selling is a mystery even to regular investors who bet the value of good corporations will rise. That's generally the case, which is why people are advised to stay invested—'going long' in brokers' parlance. However, stock markets are a lot like Las Vegas, so it's also OK to 'go short', to bet in the short term against the rise of a stock the investor believed overhyped. Right now, some people are betting against fail-safe stock like Nvidia and Tesla, hoping to profit from temporary dips, and it is legal to 'short' them.

'Shorting' is high-risk as it bucks the trend, but it's legal. When it is backed by research, stakeholders regard 'shorting' as a useful corrective. Markets should operate transparently, with maximum information symmetry, but the facts are often obscured by hype. Companies spend millions to manipulate the sentiment of investors. If a short-seller corrects hype by unearthing adverse information, the market is cooled.

Here's an instance from Hindenburg's career: pioneering electrical engineer Nikola Tesla's name inspired two US companies, Elon Musk's Tesla and the now-obscure Nikola, headquartered in Phoenix, Arizona. Both make electric cars. Founded by Trevor Milton in 2014, Nikola listed on Nasdaq in March 2020. Its stock doubled in value in less than a week after listing in early June. Having earned almost nothing through 2020, the company was valued at $13 billion in August. It was like a 1990s' internet bubble stock: Nikola was taking orders for an electric vehicle whose prototype did not exist. Sometimes, investor sentiment is just the madness that besets lemmings.

On September 10, 2020, Hindenburg accused Milton of "intricate fraud". He spoke darkly of a conspiracy of Tesla fans and paid trolls. Nikola shares fell 20 percent and potential collaborators like BP backed away. The stock collapsed from $35.55 on September 4, 2020 to $2.51 in February 2023. It is now $8.44. The company is still afloat but the balloon is in tatters.

Now the Indian establishment is imagining conspiracies. But as the case of Nikola reveals, short-sellers are useful devils—especially a short-seller who has declared its intentions by assuming the name of a doomed zeppelin, a caution to all who believe in the irresistible power of gas.

Survey needed

Ref: Between philosophy and practice of reservation (Aug 16). The current system of reservation has not achieved the desired benefit of ensuring equal social status to all. But though the target is not achieved fully, society could move far ahead in the set direction. The system surely needs a more scientific approach, for which a detailed caste survey is required.

A G Rajmohan, Anantapur

Limiting reservations

The author's observations are perfect. There is a big chasm between the purpose of reservation and its practice. The Supreme Court's suggestions to eliminate the creamy layer from the reserved SC/ST category and limiting reservation to a single generation makes sense.

K Venkatasubramanian, Coimbatore

Water politics

Ref: No time for politics on Tungabhadra dam, Guwahati floods (Aug 16). The breach of the sluice gate at Tungabhadra dam reveals the danger of political blame games during a crisis when the focus should be on public safety. In such critical times, political affiliations should be set aside to prioritise the welfare of those affected.

Narayanan Kizhumundayur, Thrissur

Peaceful resolution

Instead of indulging in blame games, political parties should resolve such problems peacefully without stretching it further. The government should take strict action towards dam maintenance authorities that were responsible for such a huge negligence in both states.

Aditya Kamble, Kalaburagi

Vandalism useless

Ref: Mob mess at Kolkata hosp adds to outrage (Aug 16). It is shocking that Kolkata is witnessing tremendous violence after the merciless rape and murder of the post-graduate trainee doctor. The CBI has already started its investigation, and one expects many skeletons to tumble out of the college-cum-hospital cupboard. But people need to understand that violence or vandalism will not help establish justice in the case.

S Ramakrishnasayee, Chennai

Swift action

Narendra Modi's clarion call to states on the necessity to take swift action against atrocities, strikes and prolonged agitations is a step in the right direction. Such uncontrollable activities bring a lot of trauma. Moreover, such atrocities pose a serious threat to unity and stall the growth of our economy.

3-phase assembly elections in J&K to begin on Sept 18

MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

THE Election Commission on Friday announced assembly polls for Jammu and Kashmir (J&K) and Haryana.

In J&K, the polls will be held in three phases — on September 18, September 25 and October 1. Voting in Haryana will scheduled for October 1, coinciding with the third phase of J&K polls. The counting of votes in J&K as well as Haryana will take place on June 4.

With the announcement of election dates for Jammu and Kashmir, the EC has set the stage for the people of the Union Territory to elect a government of their own, after the Centre did away with the erstwhile state's special status under Article 370 of the Constitution, in 2019.

Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Rajiv Kumar, flanked by Election Commissioners Gyanesh Kumar and Sukhbir Singh Sandhu, announced the poll schedules at a press conference in the national capital.

Kumar said that assembly elections in Maharashtra, which were held along with Haryana in 2019, will be announced later in view of the special security requirements for Jammu and Kashmir.

He added that four elections are due this year and by early next year, and since Jammu and Kashmir was not in the picture last time (2019-20), the commission decided to group the two assembly elections together.

Democratic exercise

Both Jammu and Kashmir and Haryana have 90 assembly seats each. While 24 seats will go to polls in the first phase in J&K, elections will be held in 26 seats and 40 seats in the second and third phases respectively. The counting of votes in both will take place on October 4.

Besides Jammu and Kashmir and Haryana, elections are due in Maharashtra, Jharkhand and Delhi.

Kumar said the next set of elections will be announced after the completion of the polls in Jammu and Kashmir and Haryana.

Both the Union Territory and the state have 90 assembly seats each. While 24 seats will go to the polls in the first phase in Jammu and Kashmir, elections will be held in 26 seats and 40 seats in the second and third phases respectively.

The last assembly elections were held in Jammu and Kashmir in November-December 2014 in five phases.

The announcement by the Election Commission comes months after the Supreme Court upheld the Central government's decision to abrogate Article 370 granting special status to Jammu and Kashmir and directed that Assembly elections be held by September 30.

Nod to Metro projects in 3 cities, 2 airports

Cabinet approves Metro rail projects for Bengaluru, Pune and Thane; also clears one airport each in Patna, Bagdogra

PARVEZ SULTAN & MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

THE Centre on Friday approved three big-ticket Metro projects for prominent cities — Bengaluru, Pune and Thane — costing ₹30,765 crore and two airports for Patna in Bihar and Bagdora in West Bengal, which are currently handling commercial flights, primarily defence facilities.

The decision was taken in the Cabinet meeting held under the chairmanship of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Briefing the media about the decisions, Union Minister for Information and Broadcasting Ashwini Vaishnaw said under Phase-III of Bangalore Metro Rail Project approved on Friday, there will be two elevated corridors of 44.65 km with 31 stations.

On operationalisation of Phase-3, Bengaluru will have 220.20km of active Metro Rail Network. Total completion cost of the project is ₹15,611 crore.

The Cabinet also approved the Swargate to Katraj Underground Line Extension of the existing PCMC-Swargate Metro Line of Pune Metro Phase-I project. This new extension is known as the Line-1 B extension and will span 5.46 km and will include three underground stations, connecting key areas such as Market Yard, Bibwewadi, Balaji Nagar, and the Katraj suburbs. The project, aiming at providing seamless connectivity in Pune, is set to be completed by February, 2029. The estimated cost of the project is ₹2,954.53 crore.

The proposed New Integrated Terminal Building at Bihta airport spans 66,000 sqm and is designed to handle 3,000 Peak Hour Passengers (PHP) and annually cater to 50 lakh passengers

The third project is the Thane Integral Ring Metro Rail Project corridor. The 29-km corridor will run along the periphery of the west side of Thane city with 22 stations. The network is encompassed by the Ulhas River on one side and Sanjay Gandhi National Park (SGNP) on the other. The estimated cost of the project is ₹12,200.10 crore, with equal equity from the Centre and Maharashtra government as well as part-funding from bilateral agencies.

"Metro is operational in 21 cities at present. Only 10 years ago, it was in only five cities. Prime Minister Modi has always taken care of the middle class. Metro is an affordable, safe and comfortable mode of transportation. Bengaluru is an IT hub and has several start-ups. It is a major employment hub and rapidly growing city. The third phase will connect the entire existing metro network in logical way," I&B minister Ashwini Vaishnaw said.

The Phase-3 is expected to alleviate traffic congestion in Bengaluru and will be particularly impactful on heavily congested routes of the Outer Ring Road West, Magadi road and other major arterial roads of the city. The reduction in road traffic can lead to smoother movement of vehicles, reduction in travel time, increasing overall road safety.

The Swargate to Katraj Underground Line Extension will enhance connectivity between the southernmost part of Pune, the northern parts of Pune and the eastern and western regions via the District Court interchange station, providing seamless connectivity for commuting within and outside Pune City.

The project will be executed by Maha-Metro, which will oversee civil, electro-mechanical, and other associated facilities and works. Maha-Metro has already begun pre-bid activities and is preparing tender documents, with contracts expected to be floated for bidding shortly. This strategic expansion is expected to unlock Pune's economic potential, providing a significant boost to the city's infrastructure and contributing to its sustainable development, read a statement of the government.

"Thane is one of the fastest-growing cities in Maharashtra. The city and its vicinity are developing into a major commercial and industrial hub. Its population is also increasing. Roads in this thickly populated city are narrow. Keeping all this in mind, the Ring Metro concept has been approved for Thane. It will connect other Metro and suburban lines," said Vaishnaw.

The Bagdogra airport, once completed with a cost of ₹1,549 crore, the capacity of the civil aviation facility will increase to 25 lakh to 1 crore per annum. It is expected to be completed by 2027. The Bihta Airport capacity will be 50 lakh per annum and it will be completed by 2026 with a cost of ₹1,413 crore.

After SC directive, clamour for policy on GM crops grows

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

COMPLYING with the Supreme Court's July directive, civil society groups and environmental activists have written to the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change (MoEFCC), seeking widespread consultative processes for evolving a national policy on Genetically Modified (GM) crops.

More than 250 signatories demanded that public consultations be well publicised in local languages in all prominent local newspapers, visual media and websites, giving at least three weeks' notice to the public to respond and keep it open for all without any partisanship.

On July 23, after nearly 20 long years of hearings in a batch of petitions questioning the country's regulatory regime with regard to GM Organisms, the Supreme Court delivered a split verdict from a two-judge bench.

It refused to conclude whether Delhi University's GM mustard is herbicide tolerant or not and sent the matter to a larger bench.

However, both the judges ordered that the government organise public consultations, preferably within the next four months for formulation of a national policy.

Previous example

Addressed to the Secretary Leena Nandan, the letter underlines previous public consultation done by the UPA government's minister Jairam Ramesh in 2009 during environmental release of GM crop Bt Brinjal between October to December 2009.

Natural for young man to be upset about sister being ill-treated, says SC

SUCHITRA K MOHANTY @ New Delhi

IT is natural for a young man to be emotionally upset to see his sister ill-treated by her in-laws, observed the Supreme Court while modifying the jail sentence of a man, accused under IPC Section 304.

A two-judge bench of Justices Abhay S Oka and Ujjal Bhuyan recently modified the sentence of an accused under Section 304 (Culpable Homicide not amounting to murder) of the IPC to the period already undergone by him.

"In so far Hussainbhai Asgarali Lokhandwala (convict) is concerned, what is discernible from the record is that he was a young man aged 18 years, studying in Class 12, at the time of the incident. There was a history of matrimonial dispute between his sister and brother-in-law Abbasbhai. It is natural for a young man to be emotionally upset to see his sister allegedly ill-treated by her in-laws and when the deceased and Abbasbhai came to their residence leading to a ruckus, it is not difficult to visualise the state of mind of Hussainbhai and his father Asgarali," the court said.

The bench remarked that much water has flown under the bridge, and the unfortunate incident leading to the loss of a precious life and sustaining of injuries by a couple of others had happened in a spur of the moment. Advocate Nikhil Goel appeared for the accused, Senior advocate Archana Pathak Dave for the state, and Senior Advocate Meenakshi Arora for the informant.

As a young man, the appellant was overcome by emotion, which led him to physically attack the deceased and his son (brother-in-law), it added.

The court partly allowed the appeal, maintained the conviction of the appellant under Section 304 of the IPC and modified the sentence to the period already undergone by him.

Army honour for Paris Olympic medal winners

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

CHIEF of the Army Staff (COAS) Gen Upendra Dwivedi on Friday felicitated Indian Army sportspersons for their accomplishments at the Paris Olympics. As part of a long-term plan to develop international talents, the Army nurtures talents by inducting sportspersons, and school-going boys and girls under various programmes.

"The ceremony held at South Block was not just an occasion to celebrate the achievements but also to acknowledge the pivotal role the Army has played in nurturing sporting talent in the nation," said Dwivedi.

The Indian contingent clinched six medals (one Silver and five Bronze) at the Paris Olympics, with Subedar Major Neeraj Chopra of the Indian Army winning the only silver medal in Javelin. Apart from Chopra, Subedar Bommandevara Dhiraj in Archery (Recurve) achieved 4th position.

During the Paris Olympics, the Indian Army's representation in the Indian contingent was 11.11% (13/117). The Army sports persons contributed 16.66% towards overall medal tally including the highest medal earned (Silver). The Army's representation in men's events was 18.2% (12/66) and Paris 2024 Olympics saw the Indian Army fielding its first woman sportsperson, Havaldar Jaismine in Boxing. During Asian Games 2023, the Army athletes bagged 20 medals — 3 Gold, 7 Silver, and 10 Bronze.

The Army's nurturing plan began in 2001 when it established its Mission Olympic Wing (MOW), dedicated to identifying and nurturing sporting talent. To propel the youth towards global excellence, the Army set up two girls' and 18 boys' sports companies which induct school boys and girls.

These initiatives "aim to provide a platform for young athletes to hone their skills, build confidence, and compete at the highest level," the Army chief said, adding, "Their achievements have not only brought accolades but also inspired countless others to pursue excellence in sports. The Army stands as a pillar of strength, valour, and discipline for the nation."

Dwivedi said the Army sportspersons would continue their quest for excellence and achieve greater heights in future.

HOSPITAL HORROR

■ Mamata Banerjee accuses CPM, BJP of orchestrating vandalism at RG Kar ■ Docs protest outside Nirman Bhavan housing health ministry

Politics peaks as Didi targets Oppn

SULAGNA SENGUPTA @Kolkata

AMID the seething anger in the medical fraternity and a sporadic judicial and administrative action, West Bengal found itself caught in the usual political slug-fest. While addressing a rally On Friday, CM Mamata Banerjee accused the opposition CPM and the BJP of orchestrating vandalism at RG Kar Hospital and attempting to hide the truth behind the rape and murder of a woman doctor by spreading fake news on social media.

Even as Mamata targeted her political adversaries, Trinamool Congress' Rajya Sabha MP Sukhendu Sekhar Roy wrote to Union Home Minister Amit Shah demanding enactment of a stringent Central law to prevent atrocities against women. Roy, who sat on a dharna on August 14 in solidarity with a midnight protest by women over the rape-murder of a post-graduate trainee doctor in RG Kar Hospital, said a stringent Central legislation was imperative to ensure the safety of women in public and private places, including hospitals, educational institutions, asylums, shopping malls, public transport, trams, government-semi government, private workplaces and other establishments.

He also called for the establishment of at least three fast-track courts in every district, with cases concluding within six months and no more than two adjournments for genuine reasons. On the other hand, BJP too hit the streets and demanded Mamata's resignation.

Union minister Dharmendra Pradhan said: "There has been complete systemic failure in West Bengal... Absolutely disgusting, shameful and reprehensible statement from Mamata Didi. The day is not far when Mamata Didi will even blame aliens and extraterrestrials for her misrule."

However, Mamata was strident in her attack as she led a protest rally from Moulali to Dorina Crossing in Kolkata. "I know that CPM and BJP workers vandalised the hospital. They went there past midnight. The video shows that CPM took the DYFI flag and BJP took the national flag. How many teams did BJP and CPM send when the incident happened in Manipur?" Mamata asked.

She also urged the Central Bureau of Investigation to resolve the case by Sunday and demanded that the culprits be hanged. The Socialist Unity Centre of India (Communist) or SUCI also called for a 12 hour strike in the state. However the strike did not have an impact on the streets and transportation was nearly normal.

Akhilesh says BJP trying to gain mileage

Samajwadi Party president Akhilesh Yadav, on Friday, launched a broadside on the BJP accusing it of drawing "political mileage" from the incident. He said that Mamata Banerjee is a female chief minister, and she will take action, adding BJP draws benefits over every incident and dishonours others

'File FIR in 6 hours for violence against healthcare workers'

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @New Delhi

THE Central government on Friday directed all the hospitals, whether run by state or Centre, to file an FIR within six hours if any healthcare professional reports violence.

The Union Health Ministry's directive came in the wake of resident doctors launching a nationwide strike to protest the brutal rape and murder of a trainee woman doctor in Kolkata. The Indian Medical Association (IMA), which has nearly 4 lakh members, has also given a 24-hour shutdown of OPD and elective surgeries in all the government, private and even corporate hospitals on Saturday. Issuing an order in this regard, Dr Atul Goel, Director General of Health Services (DGHS), said, "Recently, it has been observed that violence has become common against doctors and other healthcare staff in government hospitals. A number of health workers suffer physical violence during the course of their duty."

"Many are threatened or exposed to verbal aggression. Most of this violence is done by either the patient or the patient's attendants. In view of the above, it is stated that in the event of any violence against any healthcare worker while on duty, the head of an institution shall be responsible for filing an institutional FIR within a maximum of 6 hours of the incident," the office memorandum said.

The notice came hours before various resident doctors' associations marched to Nirman Bhavan, which houses the Union Health Minister J P Nadda's office and the health ministry.

The protesting doctors demanded that the central government bring a central law to protect healthcare workers.

Earlier this week, the National Medical Commission, the country's apex medical education regulator, also came out with a directive that in case of any incidence of violence, there should be a prompt investigation by the college management.

It also asked the medical colleges to file FIRs and submit an action taken report within 24 hours. On August 9, a post-graduate trainee woman doctor in the RG Kar Medical College and Hospital was sexually assaulted and murdered allegedly by a civic worker.

Omar keeps pre-poll alliance option open

After National Conference president and three-time former J&K Chief Minister Farooq Abdullah said his party would go it alone in Assembly polls, his son and party's vice president Omar Abdullah has kept the option of pre poll alliance open. The latter today said the party is ready to talk to Congress on alliance. "Some days ago, Congress leaders from Delhi came here. We held one round of discussion with them but they had come here without receiving instructions from high command," Omar said. He said if Congress has concrete suggestions, NC is ready to talk for reaching an understating on seat sharing.

Balidan Stambh gets inaugurated in Valley

The Valley has got its first Balidan Stambh (Pillar of Sacrifice) at Pratap Park in the heart of city. The pillar was inaugurated by J&K Lt Governor Manoj Sinha on Independence Day. The Balidan Stambh has been constructed as a tribute to the personnel of J&K police, paramilitary forces and army, who were killed in gunfights with militants in the Valley in over three decades of militancy. It has come up at the cost of ₹4.8 crore. The Balidan Stambh is 60 meters high in the shape of a soldier's gun and its foundation stone was laid by Home Minister Amit Shah in June last year.

Cops asked to wear proper uniform

In order to address the issue of uniform non-compliance by its personnel, police has directed its men and officials to adhere to the proper and same pattern of uniform. Inspector General of Police (IGP) Kashmir, Vidhi Kumar Birdi in an order stated that it has been observed that police officers and personnel wear different patterns of uniform including T-shirts, beret caps, and non-standard shoes, which is against the uniform pattern of the police department and it presents a bad image of the force. Wearing different patterns in uniform have been viewed seriously by the senior officers and they directed the practice be shunned.

JU professors observe ceasework

Associations of professors and students of Jadavpur University called for a day-long strike on Friday and demanded the arrest of all those involved in the alleged rape and murder of a PG doctor at RG Kar Medical College and Hospital. The Jadavpur University Teachers' Association called for a day-long ceasework and two-hour sit-in at the administrative building, denouncing any attempt to conceal evidence in the crime.

19 arrested for vandalism at hosp

Kolkata Police said it has so far arrested 19 people in connection with the vandalism and violence at R G Kar Medical College and Hospital. Those arrested were remanded to police custody by a court till August 22, officials said. The emergency ward, nursing station, medicine store and parts of OPD were vandalised by miscreants on Thursday amid midnight stir by women across the state.

Facing backlash, Kolkata top cop says not shielding anyone, probe transparent

The force was not trying to shield anyone. Despite security the police did not expect the protesting crowd to turn violent outside RG Kar Hospital premises

Vineet Goyal, Kolkata Police Commissioner

FACED with an all-round criticism for not doing enough to stop the vandals from raiding the RG Kar Medical College and Hospital on Wednesday night, Kolkata Police Commissioner Vineet Goyal asserted that the force was not trying to shield anyone. He told the media that though there was "sufficient security presence," the police did not expect the protesting crowd to turn violent outside the hospital premises in the early hours of August 15.

Meanwhile, the CBI questioned Dr Sandip Ghosh, former principal of the medical college, where the postgraduate trainee doctor was raped and murdered on August 10. CBI sources said Ghosh was taken to the CGO Complex at Salt Lake for interrogation.

Former superintendent of the hospital Sanjiv Vashishth and head of the chest department Arunabha Dutta Chowdhury have also been summoned for questioning.

Sources said the parents of the victim told the CBI that several interns and physicians from the hospital might be involved in the crime. The parents also provided the Central agency, which is investigating the case following the Calcutta HC order, with the names of persons they suspect to be involved in their daughter's murder.

Interns involved?

IMA firm on 24-hr shut down of OPD as docs from corporate hosps join stir

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @New Delhi

EVEN as hundreds of angry resident doctors on Friday laid siege to Nirman Bhavan, the health ministry headquarters, the Indian Medical Association (IMA) said it is firm on a 24-hour shut down of OPD and elective surgeries on Saturday to protest the barbaric rape and murder of a trainee woman doctor in Kolkata.

The IMA, the most prominent doctors' organisation, said they have received overwhelming response from not only those running small private clinics, but from doctors working in big corporate hospitals.

Speaking with this newspaper, IMA president Dr R V Asokan said, "IMA has declared 24-hour withdrawal of services by all the modern medicine doctors of the country irrespective of the sector and place of work. Emergencies and casualties will function. No OPDs. No elective surgeries."

He said that 70 per cent of their members have agreed to cease work on Saturday from 6 am to 6 am Sunday. The IMA has nearly 4 lakh members.

"We ask for the understanding and support of the nation in this struggle for justice for its doctors and daughters. It has become a national movement. Not only doctors but everyone is outraged by the way the brutal rape and murder of a woman trainee doctor, who was on duty, took place in the hospital complex," he said.

He said at the policy level, there is a reluctance to acknowledge violence against doctors, and hospitals have to change.

"The draft for the central law protecting healthcare workers is already ready. If it wants and shows political will, the government can immediately implement it. There is no need for setting up another committee. Just like during COVID-19, the government can come out with an ordinance," he added.

Among the first to announce their participation in the 24-hour strike was the faculty association of AIIMS, Delhi, which said that they have unanimously decided that apart from emergency medical services, including casualty, emergency IT, ICU and wards, no routine hospital services (OPD/OT/Laboratory) will function on Saturday in solidarity with the medical fraternity.

Both Fortis and Max said they would support those doctors who wished to participate in the nationwide shutdown.

Gujarat trails in quality education, lags behind many states: NITI Aayog

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @Ahmedabad

GUJARAT may be a model state in many respects, but when it comes to high-quality education, it lags behind states like Haryana, Sikkim, Manipur, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, and Himachal Pradesh, which are frontrunners in this area. This fact is highlighted in the Sustainable Development Report 2024, authored by the Indian Government's NITI Aayog.

According to the report, Kerala tops the SDG index with a score of 82, followed by Haryana and Himachal Pradesh with scores of 77 each. In contrast, Gujarat, despite its developed status, has a score of only 58. This is lower than West Bengal and even states like Jharkhand and Rajasthan.

The state government has been running a school enrollment program for over a decade called 'Shala Praveshotsav,' where senior IAS, IPS, and IFS officers visit villages to ensure increased enrollment each year and that no child is left out. Despite these efforts, the net enrollment rate for classes I–VIII is 89%. In comparison, Arunachal Pradesh and Assam achieve 100% enrollment, while Andhra Pradesh has a 96.9% rate.

While enrollment is not at 100%, the dropout rate in secondary education remains high. Although the state may claim success in reducing dropout rates compared to the 1980s and 1990s, the report indicates that Gujarat's dropout rate stands at 17.9%, which is higher than Kerala's 5.5%.

Uddhav's Maha pitch: 'Declare MVA CM face ahead of polls, will support'

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @Mumbai

ASSERTING his position in the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA), Maharashtra Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray on Friday expressed his willingness to support any candidate proposed by the Congress and NCP(SP) as the alliance's chief ministerial candidate, but it should be decided ahead of the upcoming assembly polls in the state.

Pointing towards NCP (SP) president Sharad Pawar and Congress leader Prithviraj Chavan, he said, "You propose a chief ministerial face, and I am ready to back him/her. But it should be decided before the state assembly elections. I am not fighting for myself. Since the day, I left the chief minister's post, I have been fighting only for the larger interest of the state".

Accusing the Shinde government of looting the state exchequer, Thackeray said, "The state government has decided to appoint 50,000 messengers on a salary of ~10,000 per month for next three months to publicise the government scheme. But the alliance would defeat those working against the interest of the state.

"This election is for the pride of Maharashtra and its interest," Thackeray said, adding those who are against the interests of Maharashtra, will be shown their place.

Thackeray, while addressing the MVA rally in Mumbai, stated that Maharashtra Congress president Nana Patole said that the senior leaders of the MVA will sit together and decide the chief ministerial face.

Meanwhile, slamming Thackeray, BJP Mumbai president Ashish Shelar said after his attempt to convince Congress leaders in Delhi to propose his name for CM post failed, he is trying to assert his position in the MVA by asking alliance members to declare CMs first.

Traffic police in Assam goof it, fine auto driver for 'not wearing helmet'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Guwahati

AN Assam auto rickshaw driver was left flabergasted when he learnt that he was fined ₹1,000 by the traffic police for not wearing a helmet.

Dinendra Kemprai, a resident of Haflong in the hill district of Dima Hasao, was charged with "riding without helmets by both driver and pillion" under section 194 D of the Motor Vehicles (MV) Act.

The middle-aged owner-cum-driver of the three-wheeler had no idea that an e-challan against him was issued on July 29 last year until he visited a pollution testing centre for renewal of his pollution under control (PUC) certificate on Wednesday.

"I had to renew my PUC by August 15, so I went to a pollution testing centre the day before. An attendant there said a challan of ₹ 1,000 was pending against me for not wearing a helmet. He said I would have to clear it first," Kemprai said.

He visited the office of the motor vehicle inspector and later, approached the traffic police. "When I visited the traffic police office, I was told the fine is in fact ₹2,000, and it was mentioned as ₹1,000 by mistake. The offence against me was that I carried passengers beyond the permissible limit," Kemprai said.

He said he thought of taking legal recourse but dropped the plan. "I am a poor man and I cannot afford to fight a legal battle. I have not yet paid the fine but I will if I have to," he said. The traffic police attributed the incident to a "human error".

"An ASI had levied the fine online. Instead of pressing section 179 (1) of the MV Act on the touchscreen, he pressed section 194 D. It happened by mistake. It was a human error," sub-inspector Pranab Borpatro said.

INCURSION MEANT TO FORCE RUSSIA TO NEGOTIATE: KYIV

Ukraine claims it seized 1,100 sq km of Russian territory in its biggest counter-attack

KYIV

UKRAINE said on Friday its incursion into Russian territory was aimed at forcing Russia to negotiate on "fair" terms, as Moscow's troops announced new gains in eastern Ukraine.

Two and a half years into Russia's invasion of Ukraine, Kyiv's troops last week launched a major counter-offensive into Russia's Kursk region, sending more than 1,20,000 people fleeing.

President Volodymyr Zelensky's aide Mykhailo Podolyak said on Friday that Ukraine wanted to negotiate "on our own terms".

"We have absolutely no plans to beg: Please, sit down to negotiate," he wrote on X.

"Instead, we have proven, effective means of coercion. In addition to economic and diplomatic ones... we need to inflict significant tactical defeats on Russia," he said.

"In the Kursk region, we can clearly see how the military tool is being used objectively to persuade Russia to enter a fair negotiation process."

Ukraine has ruled out any talks with Russia if Russian troops do not leave its territory. President Vladimir Putin has said Russia would declare a ceasefire only if Kyiv withdraws from the four regions that Russia claims to have annexed but only partially controls — Donetsk, Lugansk, Zaporizhzhia and Kherson.

Ukraine meanwhile claims to have seized over 1,100 square kilometres of Russian territory, in the biggest attack by a foreign army on Russian soil since World War II.

"I was very scared, very scared," Nina Golinyaeva, a former resident of the border town of Sudzha, told AFP at an evacuation centre in Kursk city, the regional capital.

"Shells were flying from all sides, helicopters, planes, fighter jets were flying over the house," she said, recounting a dramatic night-time escape amid the fighting. AFP

UK, French ministers in Israel to push for truce

JERUSALEM: International diplomacy to prevent the war in Gaza from spreading into a wider regional conflict intensified on Friday, with the British and French foreign ministers making a joint trip to Israel while internationally mediated cease-fire talks in Qatar entered their second day. The new push for an end to the Israel-Hamas war came as the Palestinian death toll in Gaza climbed past 40,000, according to Gaza health authorities, and fears remained high that Iran and Hezbollah militants in Lebanon would attack Israel in retaliation for the killings of top militant leaders. "This is a dangerous moment for the Middle East," British Foreign Secretary David Lammy said. "Any Iranian attack would have devastating consequences for the region." AFP

RBI tightens P2P lending norms to bring transparency

BEN KOCHUVEEDAN @ Mumbai

CITING some instances of violations of norms by some entities, the Reserve Bank has tightened regulations for peer-to-peer (P2P) non-bank lending platforms with a view to improve transparency and compliance, and to address concerns over their practices violating the 2017 guidelines. The revised guidelines come into force with immediate effect.

A P2P platform should not promote P2P lending as an investment product with features like tenure-linked assured minimum returns, liquidity options, etc, the RBI said Friday in the revised master directions.

As per the revised master direction, a non-banking P2P platform should not cross-sell any insurance product, which is in the nature of credit enhancement or credit guarantee. No loan should be disbursed unless the lenders and the borrowers have been matched/mapped as per the board-approved policy framed, it added..RBI had first issued P2P lending guidelines in 2017. A P2P platform acts as an intermediary providing online platform to the participants involved in P2P lending.

"It is observed that some of these platforms have adopted practices, which were violative of provisions of direction 2017," RBI said. "Such practices include violation of prescribed funds transfer mechanism, promoting P2P lending as an investment product with features like tenure linked assured returns, providing liquidity options and at times acting like deposit takers and lenders instead of being a platform," it added.

Forex kitty falls by $4.8 billion to $670 billion

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

THE foreign exchange reserves fell by $4.8 billion to $670.119 billion in the week to August 9, as the RBI likely have sold dollars to defend the rupee which was under tremendous pressure, testing the 84-mark to the dollar twice during the week.

As per the latest weekly data released on Friday, forex reserves dropped by $4.8 billion to $670.119 billion for the week ending August 9, which in the previous reporting week had touched an all-time high of $674.919 billion, adding over $7.53 billion in a week. Yet, the Reserve Bank has amassed over $45 billion to the forex kitty so far this fiscal, adding to the nation's defence against external sector imbalances.

The forex reserves have risen by about $45-50 billion on a cumulative basis so far in 2024. The buffer reserves insulates domestic economic activity from global spillovers.

Buyback tax rules inequitable: Industry

Experts argue the new tax rate is disproportionately higher compared to LTCGT of 12.5% and STCGT of 20%

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

Budget imposed up to 39% tax on shareholders who sell shares back to the companies, treating this transaction as dividend income
SHAREHOLDERS CONCERNS
New provisions have shifted tax burden onto individual shareholders, which the industry claims to be both unfair and inequitable
Buyback of shares is currently classified as transfer of a capital asset, and many believe it should be taxed as capital gains rather than as income
THIS VIEW HOLDS THAT TAXING BUYBACKS AS DIVIDENDS CONTRADICTS ESTABLISHED TAX PRINCIPLES
Another pressing concern is the unequal treatment of shareholders
Cost of acquisition of shares is available as a deemed capital loss for the shareholder

INDUSTRY representatives have recently submitted representations to the finance minister, urging a reconsideration of new taxation rules concerning the buyback of shares. The 2024 Union Budget imposed up to a 39% tax on shareholders who sell their shares back to the companies, treating this transaction as dividend income.

Previously, companies would face a buyback tax of 23%, but new provisions have shifted tax burden onto individual shareholders, which the industry claims to be unfair and inequitable. Experts argue new tax rate is disproportionately higher as gainst long-term capital gains tax (LTCGT) of 12.5% and short-term capital gains tax (STCGT) of 20%, which apply when shares are sold to other buyers.

The Direct Tax Committee of the PHD Chamber of Commerce and Industry has raised key concerns regarding implications of the new buyback tax. As per them, there is a major issue concerning tax classification. Share buyback is currently classified as a transfer of a capital asset, and many believe it should be taxed as capital gains rather than as income. This view holds that taxing buybacks as dividends contradicts established tax principles.

Another concern is unequal treatment of shareholders. The stark difference in tax rates is troubling; shareholders face up to 39% tax when selling shares back to the company. This discrepancy makes the buyback option less attractive for investors.

"Income realised consequent to shares being bought back should have been treated as capital gains income; this would align with underlying nature of transaction," said Lokesh Shah, partner, IndusLaw.

He adds that in current framework to treat buyback as dividend, cost of share acquisition is available as deemed capital loss for shareholder. "Deemed capital loss is available for offset against eligible gain (long term/short term) that may be recognised in the future. In the event, no such gains occur to shareholder in next eight years, the loss recognised consequent to the buyback is a lost cost."

"... the provision that in such a case the purchase price of ₹100 shall be treated as long-term/short-term capital loss to be offset against future capital gains is unjust and unfair because the person may not have any capital gains in future and may be too old to live long enough to earn the capital gains to offset his such capital loss," argued PHD Chambers of Commerce.

Fed rate cut hope triggers rally in equity market

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

Stability of Japanese Yen has been instrumental in driving a global market recovery. Besides that, the strong US retail sales and a fall in weekly jobless claims have helped alleviate fears of a US recession

Vinod Nair, head of research, Geojit Financial Services

ON the back of strong global cues, the Indian equity market rallied sharply on Friday with the benchmarks – BSE Sensex and NSE Nifty50 – surging nearly 2% each. The Sensex added 1330.96 points, or 1.68%, to close at 80,436.84, while the Nifty50 advanced 397.40 points, or 1.65% to settle at 24,541.15.

In the broader market, BSE MidCap and SmallCap indices surged over 1.5% each. Investors added ₹7.30 lakh crore on Friday as the market cap of BSE-listed firms rose to ₹451.6 lakh crore. The rally was attributed to fresh hopes of an interest rate by the US Federal Reserve after consumer inflation in the economy fell to a 3-year low of 2.9% in July and retail sales grew stronger-than-expected in the same month. Domestically, the Indian CPI inflation rate also fell below the estimate, signalling optimism.

Tech-heavy NASDAQ advanced 2.5% on Thursday. US benchmarks - Dow Jones and the S&P 500 - gained about 1.5% each. Stability in Yen prompted a rally in Asian markets. Japan's Nikkei rose 3.6%, Kospi and Taiwan were up 2% each.

"Stability of Japanese Yen has been instrumental in driving a global market recovery. Strong US retail sales and a fall in weekly jobless claims have helped alleviate fears of a US recession. Further, the market sentiment has improved due to a decrease in US CPI inflation. On the backdrop of these, the Indian IT firms exhibited strong buying interest," said Vinod Nair, head of research, Geojit Financial Services.

Nair said challenges such as a drop in WPI inflation, weak IIP, and lukewarm Q1 corporate earnings suggest market gains may be limited, which is reflected by FIIs maintaining a net seller position. In the coming week, market will keenly watch Fed chair speech in Jackson Hole and FOMC minutes.

The major beneficiaries of an improving US economy were IT shares. The Nifty IT index rallied 3% on Friday with top gainers being Mphasis, L&T Technology Services, Wipro and Tech Mahindra. The heavyweights – Infosys and TCS – gained 2% and 3% each.

Acquisitions are key ingredient in growth path: Happiest Minds

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

ACQUISITIONS are a key ingredient in Happiest Minds' growth path, as it in Q1 alone acquired PureSoftware Technologies for ₹779 crore and also US-based Azure native digital product engineering company Aureus Tech Systems.

Talking about these acquired companies, Venkatraman Narayanan, MD and CFO, Happiest Minds told TNIE they expect in the next quarter bit more of a perk up in both BFSI (banking, financial services, and insurance) and healthcare verticals because both these acquired companies are largely BFSI.

Through the acquisition of Aureus, the firm has strengthened its domain capabilities in insurance & reinsurance, healthcare and life sciences and strong product & digital wngineering services (PDES) business. The acquisition strengthens the firm's presence in the US. In case of PureSoftware, it helps augment the firm's presence in the US, UK and India, and it will get a near-shore presence in Mexico and offices in Singapore, Malaysia, and Africa. Happiest Minds' profit after tax stood at ₹51 crore in Q1, down 29.1% sequentially. Revenue in Q1 stood at ₹464 crore, up 11.2% sequentially.

"Our revenue in constant currency grew YoY 17.8% while EBITDA grew 13.3%. Variations in PBT and PAT are primarily on account of non-recurring expenses in the current quarter versus a large exceptional write-back in the previous, and increased amortisation and financing costs arising from acquisitions," Narayanan said.

JSW Cement files paper to raise ₹4,000 crore through public issue

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

BILLIONAIRE Sajjan Jindal-led JSW Cement has filed draft papers to launch a ₹4,000 crore Initial Public Offering (IPO). The company would be raising ₹2,000 crore through a fresh issue and another ₹2000 crore via an offer for sale (OFS).

Under the OFS component, AP Asia Opportunistic Holdings, Synergy Metals and the State Bank of India will offload part of their stakes.

JSW Cement would become the latest JSW Group company to hit on the exchanges. Currently, the Group's listed entities included JSW Steel, JSW Energy and JSW Infrastructure. Parth Jindal, MD of JSW Cement, had last year stated their plans to list the cement units and use the proceeds to fund the ambitious goal of reaching a 60 million tonne capacity.

As per the IPO paper, 50% of the public offer is reserved for qualified institutional buyers, 15% for non-institutional investors and 35% for retail investors. The company would the net proceeds for partly financing the proposed cement facility in in Nagaur, Rajasthan, repayment of debt and other general corporate purposes.

The IPO paper showed JSW Cement's revenue from operations rose to ₹6,028 crore in FY24 from ₹5,837 crore a year ago.

However, net profit fell to ₹62 crore last fiscal from ₹104 crore a year earlier. JM Financial Ltd, Axis Capital, Citigroup Global Markets India, DAM Capital Advisors, Goldman Sachs (India) Securities, Jefferies India, Kotak Mahindra Capital Company and SBI Capital Markets are responsible for managing the company's IPO process.

ECOM EXPRESS FILES FOR ₹2,600 CR IPO

NEW DLHI: Ecom Express has filed draft papers with capital markets regulator Sebi to raise ₹2,600 crore through an initial share-sale. The company's initial public offering (IPO) comprises a fresh issue of equity shares worth ₹1,284.50 crore and an offer for sale (OFS) of shares valued ₹1,315.50 crore by promoters and other shareholders, according to the draft red herring prospectus (DRHP). Proceeds from the fresh capital to the tune of ₹387.44 crore will be used for setting up new processing centres with automation and new fulfilment centres, ₹73.71 crore for computers and IT equipment, ₹239.23 crore for enhancing technology, data science capabilities, and cloud infrastructure, and ₹87.92 crore for payment of debt. ENS

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

IN a major bureaucratic reshuffle, the government has changed several secretaries in the Ministry of Finance and Ministry of Commerce.

The government has also appointed Manoj Govil, currently secretary in the Ministry of Corporate Affairs as the new expenditure secretary. Govil will replace TV Somanathan, who has been recently appointed as the cabinet secretary.

Govil is a 1991 batch Indian Administrative Services (IAS) officer who belonged to the Madhya Pradesh cadre. He has also served as principal secretary finance and Principal Secretary Commercial Taxes, government of Madhya Pradesh. Deepti Gaur Mukerjee, a 1993-batch MP cadre IAS, would take Govil's place in the Ministry of Corporate affairs.

Current secretary, department of financial services, ministry finance, Vivek Joshi has been shifted to Ministry of personnel, public grievances and pension as secretary, department of personnel and training. Joshi would be replaced by Nagraju Maddirala, who is currently additional secretary at the Ministry of Coal. Maddirala is a 1993 batch Tripura cadre officer.

CHINA

JUL GROWTH SLOWS ON WEAK CONSUMPTION

A property crisis and weak consumption slowed down China's economic recovery in July, according to data released on Thursday by the National Bureau of Statistics. Unemployment, clocked at 5.2% in July compared to 5 per cent in June, rose for the first time since February. Industrial production grew more slowly than the previous month, showing a 5.1% year-on-year increase in July as against 5.3% rise in June. Retail sales increased slightly more than analysts had expected, rising 2.7% YoY in July as against 2% in June. The recovery in consumption will be further consolidated given recent government policies to boost consumer spending. Beijing announced plans last month to use 150 billion Yuan ($20.9 billion) in government debt to finance trade-ins for consumer goods such as appliances and cars to stimulate spending.

JAPAN

ECO GROWTH ON CONSUMER SPENDS, BIZ INVESTMENT

The economy of Japan grew at an annual rate of 3.1% in the April-June period, rebounding from the contraction in the previous quarter, according to the government data released on Thursday. The economy increased 0.8% in the fiscal first quarter, as per the Cabinet Office. Domestic demand grew a robust 3.5% from the previous quarter on the back of healthy household consumption and private sector investments, as well as government investments. Exports grew 5.9%. The country's GDP shrank 0.6% in January-March, after eking out 0.1% growth in October-December last year. Economic growth went back and forth between such periods of contraction and weak expansion for the past year.

HONG KONG

Q2 GDP EXPANDS 3.3% YEAR-ON-YEAR

The economy of Hong Kong expanded 3.3% in the second quarter from a year earlier, the government said on Friday, adding that the economy should continue to grow. The economy expanded 2.7% in Q1 of 2024. On a seasonally adjusted quarterly basis, economy grew 0.4% in the April to June period as against a growth of 2.3% in the January-March quarter. The government has maintained its full-year growth forecast for 2024 of between 2.5% and 3.5%. Hong Kong, a major financial hub, is struggling to bounce back after a three-year Covid-19 lockdown. Though visitor arrivals are rising, there are signs tourists are spending less. The recovery has been hampered by a rise in Hong Kong residents travelling to the mainland for shopping and entertainment.

Anti-dumping probe against Vietnam steel imports

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE Directorate General of Trade Remedies (DGTR) has initiated an anti-dumping probe into imports of hot rolled flat products of alloy or non-alloy steel from Vietnam, following an application filed by the Indian Steel Association (ISA) on behalf of domestic steel producers, JSW Steel and ArcelorMittal Nippon Steel India.

Probe was initiated after claims that imports of certain steel products from Vietnam are being sold at dumped prices, reportedly inflicting harm on domestic industry. The Indian Steel Association (ISA) has raised concerns that imports from Vietnam could jeopardise local manufacturers.

The probe focuses on hot rolled flat products that are neither clad nor plated, with thicknesses reaching up to 25 mm and widths of up to 2,100 mm. This category includes a range of forms like coils and cut-to-length pieces including automotive production, oil and gas pipeline construction, general engineering, and building projects.

Petitioners assert there are no major differences between the products produced in India and those imported from Vietnam. They argue both types of steel are interchangeable, sharing similar physical and chemical characteristics, manufacturing processes, and end-use applications. Consequently, domestic producers are seeking recognition of imported steel as 'like articles' under Anti-Dumping Rules. The DGTR has expressed prima facie satisfaction that JSW Steel and ArcelorMittal Nippon Steel constitute eligible domestic industry involved in production of these products.

Political instability in Bangladesh will impact the industries dependent upon Indian steel raw material (sponge iron and pig iron), as per experts. Nearly 80% of steel exports to Bangladesh, Pakistan, Nepal and Srilanka is done to Bangladesh, as per experts. The Authority has considered the period of probe as January 1, 2023, to March 31, 2024.

RIL layoffs raise concern over hiring in retail

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

THE recent layoffs within Reliance's retail division (about 38,029 job cuts) have raised many questions, especially the future of hiring with regards to retail opportunities.

As per the company's annual report, RIL has cut about 42,052 jobs (38,029 in retail alone) during FY24. Its total number of employees in retail arm stood at 2,07,552 in FY24 as against 2,45,581 in the previous fiscal. The annual report states that it hired 1.71 lakh new employees (1,05,047 in Reliance Retail) across diverse businesses in FY24. In FY23, the number of new hires in retail was 1,79,971. Total number of new hires in Reliance was 2,62,558 in FY23.

Aditya Narayan Mishra, MD & CEO of CIEL HR, said the impact of RIL's layoffs will likely be multifaceted. "In the short-term, we might see a shift in operational dynamics, with a greater focus on efficiency and adoption of technology-driven solutions to maintain service levels. However, this creates opportunities for the remaining workforce to upskill and adapt to new roles within the evolving retail landscape," he said.

Reliance Retail recorded gross revenue of ₹3,06,848 crore, a growth of 17.8% over last year.

In the report, Mukesh Ambani, chairman and MD, RIL, said Reliance Retail's vision of inclusive development for millions of consumers and merchants, coupled with unprecedented growth of the Indian marketplace, has resulted in marquee names investing in RRVL at a $100 billion valuation milestone.

Romania gymnast gets contested Olympic bronze

Romanian gymnast Ana Barbosu received Olympic bronze at a ceremony in Bucharest after the International Gymnastics Federation awarded it to her instead of US gymnast Jordan Chiles. A score revision over degree of difficulty lifted Chiles to third in the floor exercise at the Paris Olympics on August 5, causing heartbreak for Barbosu who thought she had won bronze.

DELHI HC RESTORES MANDATE OF IOA AD-HOC PANEL

Court leaves it to IOA to reconstitute multi-member committee to takeover day-to-day affairs of Wrestling Federation of India; WFI set to challenge order

ENS/AGENCIES @ Chennai/ New Delhi

INDIAN wrestling's issues with governance is set to continue. On Friday, the Delhi High Court restored the mandate of the Indian Olympic Association's ad-hoc committee on an earlier plea seeking a stay on the functioning of the Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) in the body's current form.

While passing the interim order on the petition brought to the court by wrestlers Vinesh Phogat, Bajrang Punia, Sakshi Malik and Satyavart Kadian, Vinesh's husband, Justice Sachin Datta held that he was open to the IOA re-constituting the multi-member ad-hoc committee to takeover the day-to-day affairs.

"Since this court has concluded that the dissolution of the ad-hoc committee was unwarranted, it restores the mandate of the ad-hoc committee appointed by the IOA vide order dated 27.12.2023," the Court said. "However, it shall be open to IOA to reconstitute the ad-hoc committee so as to ensure that the same is a multi-member body comprising of eminent sportsperson/s and/or experts who are well-versed in dealing with the International Federations, so as to allay any concerns that the UWW (United World Wrestling-the world body for the sport) might have as regards the steps taken qua the WFI. "Dissolution of the ad-hoc committee is thus incongruous and incompatible with continuation of the order dated 24.12.2023 whereby the newly elected Executive Committee of the WFI has been instructed to abstain from administering and managing the day-to-day activities of the Federation with immediate effect," the court said.

Vinesh Phogat (C) & Bajrang Punia (R) had filed a petition earlier this year seeking a stay on the functioning of the WFI in the body's current form | FILE PHOTO

The wrestlers, who were at the forefront of protests demanding the arrest of then WFI chief Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh for alleged sexual harassment, had moved the High Court earlier this year for setting aside and declaring as illegal the elections held by WFI in December; Sanjay Singh, considered to be a close aide of Brij Bhushan, was elected to the top post.

Three days after the election, the Centre had suspended WFI for allegedly not following the provisions of its own constitution while taking decisions, and requested IOA to constitute an ad-hoc committee to manage and control the affairs.

The ad-hoc committee was disbanded by the IOA in March after the world body, United World Wrestling, lifted the ban on WFI in February. In the plea filed by the wrestlers, they also wanted the Court to appoint a retired High Court or Supreme Court judge as the administrator of WFI. But the Court didn't entertain that prayer. "It is deemed apposite to have a multi-member ad-hoc committee (as mentioned aforesaid) to manage and control the affairs of the Respondent No 2 (WFI)," the Court added.

WFI have said they will challenge this interim order. "We are going to take it to double bench," Sanjay said. "The IOA had dissolved the ad-hoc panel. We will also approach world governing body UWW and the IOC. They had warned that outside interference may impact our athletes. "Two World Championships are approaching. Indian wrestlers' participation could be blocked."

TIMELINE

JAN 18, 2023: Wrestlers begin protest at Jantar Mantar, accuse WFI chief Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh of sexual exploitation.

JAN 19, 2023: Protesting wrestlers meet the then sports minister Anurag Thakur at his residence.

DEC 24: Sports Ministry suspends WFI till further orders.

FEB 13, 2024: UWW lifts provisional suspension on India with conditions.

MAR 9: Delhi HC bars WFI from holding trials, directs ad-hoc panel to select teams.

MAR 18: IOA dissolves ad-hoc committee for wrestling.

AUG 16: Based on a plea filed by wrestlers earlier in the year, the Delhi HC restores mandate of IOA's multi-member committee to manage the affairs of the wrestling body. In turn, WFI have said they will challenge the order of the court.

Buchi Babu: Kishan hits century for Jharkhand on red-ball comeback

GOMESH S @ Chennai

WHEN Ishan Kishan walked out to bat against Madhya Pradesh at the India Cements Cricket Ground, Tirunelveli on Friday for Jharkhand, it was the first time he played a professional red-ball match since the Test against West Indies in Port of Spain last July.

A lot had happened in the year that had gone by. Kishan was a part of the Indian team that won the Asia Cup in Sri Lanka, in the squad when the team reached the final of the ODI World Cup and played white-ball cricket against Australia at home and South Africa away. By the time the Test series came along, Kishan had asked for a break due to fatigue — it was reported that he had asked for a break twice since the ODI WC, but didn't get — and was left out of the squad for the two-match series in the longest format. Then came a whole cycle of events in a short span of time.

Kishan made himself available for the T20I series against Afghanistan but was not picked. Similarly, for the Test series against England, he was not part of the squad. As the weeks went by, Kishan did not turn up for Jharkhand in the Ranji Trophy and was eventually dropped from the BCCI central contract. Since then he has had a forgetful IPL, and had to start from scratch to get back into the mix for the Indian team. Former India head coach Rahul Dravid in February had said that the choice is with Kishan. "There's a way back for anyone and everyone. It's not that we rule out anybody from anything. I just don't want to go on labouring about the Kishan point. I've tried to explain it as best as I can. The point was that, you know, he requested a break. We were happy to give him a break and whenever he was ready... I didn't say he has to play domestic cricket. I said, whenever he's ready he needs to play some cricket and come back, and the choice is his," Dravid had said.

At Tirunelveli: Madhya Pradesh 225 in 91.3 ovs (Arham Aquil 57, Shubham Kushwah 84, Shubham Singh 3/35, Saurabh Shekhar 3/35) vs Jharkhand 277/7 in 84 ovs (Vikash Vishal 38, Sharandeep Singh 33, Aditya Singh 33, Ishan Kishan 114, Akash Rajawat 3/82);

BRIEF SCORES At Salem: Indian Railways 570 in 129.5 ovs (Shivam Choudhary 88, Vivek Singh 104, Pratham Singh 130, Mohammad Saif 57, Sahab Yuvraj 105 n.o, Ashutosh Sharma 43, Siddharth Desai 4/159, Chintan Gaja 3/89) vs Gujarat 155/3 in 43 ovs (Manan Hingrajia 65, Het Patel 41 batting); At Coimbatore: Haryana 419 in 129.3 ovs (Nishant Sindhu 91,Dheeru Singh 147, Lakshay Sangwan 75, Amit Rana 46) vs Mumbai 133/4 in 50 ovs (Akhil Herwadkar 55, Musheer Khan 32); At Dindigul: Chhattisgarh 278 vs Jammu & Kashmir 349/4 in 103 ovs (Shubham Khajuria 147 batting, Abdul Samad 58, Paras Dogra 73, Sahil Lotra 57 batting).

The match is still in balance, and so is the tournament. But for Kishan, this century is so much more. It is his first small tick towards an India comeback. The next stop will be the Duleep Trophy starting September 5.

Paralympics: Athletes accorded grand send-off

AGENCIES @ New Delhi

THE Indian paralympic contingent was on Friday accorded a grand send-off ahead of the Paris Games scheduled to be held from August 28 to September 8. The Paralympic Committee of India (PCI) and Sports Authority of India (SAI) hosted the ceremony for the Indian team comprising 84 athletes across 12 disciplines, including archery, athletics, badminton, canoeing, cycling, blind judo, powerlifting, rowing, shooting, swimming, table tennis, and taekwondo.

"Our para athletes have a remarkable ability to overcome obstacles and turn challenges into opportunities.

They have shown remarkable determination and perseverance in their preparation for the Paris Paralympics 2024," sports minister, Mansukh Mandaviya, said in a release.

Sports minister Mansukh Mandaviya (top; centre) during the send-off ceremony for the Indian contingent participating in the Paris Paralympics, in New Delhi | PTI

"As they embark on this important journey, we stand united in our support and are confident they will bring honour to our nation. We wish them the very best as they strive for excellence on the global stage," he said. India had won 19 medals at the Tokyo Paralympics and PCI president, Devendra Jhajharia, hoped the country's athletes will produce another good show this time.

Flag-bearers

Tokyo Paralympics gold medal winner Sumit Antil and Asian Para Games silver medalist Bhagyashree Jadhav will be Indian flag-bearers at the opening ceremony. "Antil and Bhagyashree have been consistent performers over the years. They will be Indian flag-bearers at the Paris Paralympics' athletes march past," Jhajharia said.

Haryana's javelin thrower Sumit won the Tokyo Paralympics gold medal with a world record throw of 68.55 metres in the F64 category.

He then went on to win a gold at the World Para Championships last year and shattered his own record at the Asian Para Games with a throw of 73.29m. Shot putter Bhagyashree, who competes in the F34 category, won a silver medal at the Asian Para Games.

CT: PCB to use new floodlights in 2 stadiums

KARACHI: The Pakistan Cricket Board will use new floodlights at stadiums in Karachi and Lahore for the Champions Trophy early next year. Besides installing the new light towers in Karachi and Lahore on rental basis, the PCB has also decided to do the same at smaller venues like Quetta, Abbottabad, Peshawar in its effort to complete a hectic domestic season by playing matches under lights in hot weather.

SL wicketkeeper-batter Dickwella suspended for doping violation

COLOMBO: Sri Lankan wicketkeeper-batter Niroshan Dickwella has been suspended by Sri Lanka Cricket following allegations of an anti-doping violation during the Lankan Premier League. The SLC announced the decision with immediate effect on Friday, with the alleged incident taking place during the LPL. "The test, which was conducted by the Sri Lanka Anti-Doping Agency (SLADA) during the Lanka Premier League (LPL) 2024, is part of SLC's ongoing commitment to maintaining the integrity of the sport," SLC's statement read.

Ed Sheeran buys minority stake in Ipswich Town

IPSWICH: Lifelong Ipswich Town fan Ed Sheeran has bought a small stake in the club ahead of its return to the Premier League. Ipswich said Thursday that the British musician has acquired a 1.4 ownership stake, but will be a passive investor and not part of the club's board of directors. The club did not disclose the value of the deal. Sheeran is the club's most famous supporter and has been Ipswich's shirt sponsor since 2021.

Rain halts Alcaraz as Gauff makes early exit

AGENCIES @ Cincinnati

CARLOS Alcaraz was halted by rain on the brink of victory Thursday while defending women's champion Coco Gauff crashed out in her first match at the ATP and WTA Cincinnati Open. Spaniard Alcaraz, the reigning Wimbledon and French Open champion, led France's Gael Monfils 6-4, 6-6 (1/3) when rain halted play at the last major tuneup for the US Open, which starts on August 26. Top seed Alcaraz, who lost to Novak Djokovic in last year's Cincinnati final, took a silver medal at the Paris Olympics, also dropping that final to Djokovic. Alcaraz is back on hardcourt for the first time since winning at Miami. He skipped last week's ATP Montreal Masters. Gauff was eliminated earlier in a 6-4, 2-6, 6-4 upset loss to Kazakh spoiler Yulia Putintseva.

A disappointed Gauff will go back to the drawing board before defending her US Open crown. Putintseva, ranked 34th, has made a recent habit of upsets, knocking off top-ranked Iga Swiatek barely a month ago at Wimbledon. "I'm really proud of myself," said Putintseva. "These courts are so fast, you have to just play on instinct. That's what I did."

Coco Gauff was beaten by Yulia Putintseva (not in pic) | AFP

Gauff became Cincinnati's youngest champion a year ago at age 19 and carried that success into her first Grand Slam triumph at the US Open. "I have to work on consistency. overall," Gauff said. "I'm making a lot of unforced errors, especially when I was up 4-2 (in the third set)," Gauff said. "Most of the points (Putintseva won) were off (my) errors. "She's tricky to play, mixes up the ball and likes drop shots, She makes you earn the match." Putintseva will next face Spain's Paula Badosa, who defeated Anna Kalinskaya 6-3, 6-2.

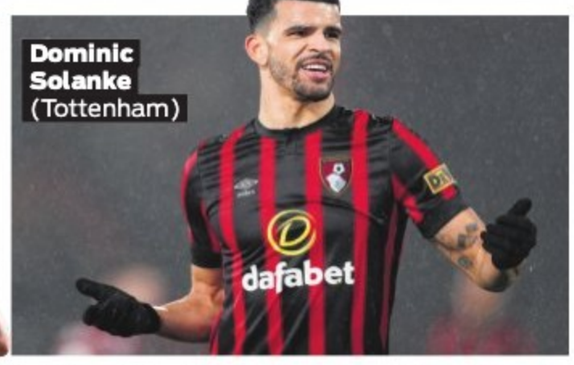
PREMIER LEAGUE SIGNINGS TO WATCH

Premier League clubs were slow to splash their cash in the early months of the transfer window but business has picked up ahead of the start to the new season. A glimpse at five of the major signings aiming to justify their price tags...

Riccardo Calafiori (Arsenal)

Arsenal boasted the best defence in the Premier League last season, keeping 18 clean sheets in 38 games. Comfortable on the ball and striding out from the back, Calafiori has been tipped as a possible left-back. His arrival, for a reported £42 million ($53 million), certainly boosts Mikel Arteta's wealth of defensive options as Arsenal aim to end a 21-year wait to win the title.

5 Man City will be chasing an unprecedented fifth straight title.



Dominic Solanke (Tottenham)

Fresh from his best ever scoring season, netting 19 times in the Premier League for Bournemouth, Solanke would become Tottenham's record signing if the add-ons are met in a deal that can rise to £65 million. Spurs did not sign a replacement when Harry Kane departed a year ago. Now the pressure is on the 26-year-old to fill those shoes.

Matthijs de Ligt (Manchester United)

Dutch international De Ligt has been reunited with Erik ten Hag, who helped the centre-back rise to fame at Ajax as a teenager. After big money moves to Juventus and then Bayern Munich, De Ligt's career has stalled as he fell out of favour for both club and country over the past year. His arrival is just part of a defensive overhaul as United have also recruited French teenager Leny Yoro and De Ligt's Bayern teammate Noussair Mazraoui.

Pedro Neto (Chelsea)

The Portugal winger has joined from Wolves for a fee of £54 million. Yet he faces stiff competition just to get into the side with Raheem Sterling, Mykhailo Mudryk and Noni Madueke among the other wingers available to Enzo Maresca. Cole Palmer — by a distance Chelsea's player of last season — is expected to drift inside from a starting role on the right.

Niclas Fuellkrug (West Ham)

The signing of German international Fuellkrug has been the highlight of a busy summer for West Ham. A battering ram of a centre-forward, the 31-year-old is a huge fan favourite in his homeland, with many calling for him to start ahead of Arsenal's Kai Havertz at the Euros. Fuellkrug scored 16 goals in his sole season at Borussia Dortmund to help them reach last season's Champions League final.

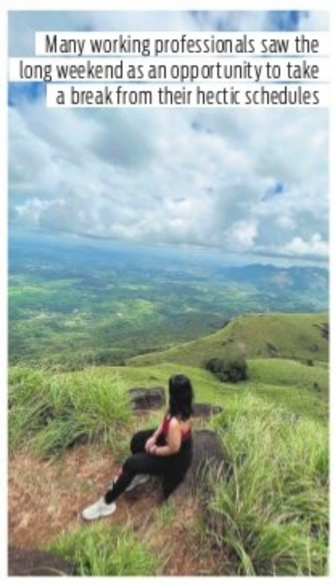
A curated guide to happenings in the city PG 2

WHETHER IT'S THE SUN-KISSED BEACHES OF GOA, THE SERENE HILLS OF KODAIKANAL, OR THE WILD PLAINS OF KENYA, BENGALUREANS HAVE SEIZED THE LONG WEEKEND TO ITS FULLEST

HOLIDAY MODE ON

Places like Hampi, Puducherry, and Kodaikanal have seen a lot of demand this weekend



Many working professionals saw the long weekend as an opportunity to take a break from their hectic schedules

Masai Mara National Reserve, Kenya

POOJA DAS

WITH Independence Day, Varamahalakshmi and Raksha Bandhan all falling in a row and providing the luxury of an extended weekend, many Bengalureans have embraced the chance for a much-needed escape. This has sparked a surge in travel plans, with destinations both within India and abroad experiencing high demand. For many, it's not merely about the destination, but rather the chance to step away from the daily grind to find a moment of peace and rejuvenation.

Bia Sandhu, a busy working professional, viewed the long weekend as a golden opportunity to disconnect and recharge. "Life is so hectic, there's no time to breathe," she shares. Like many others, Sandhu has chosen Goa as her getaway. "We thought it would be an ideal time to escape the hustle of everyday life," Sandhu adds. "These are the few moments in the year when we can get away with the family. The whole plan is to relax and detach from everything," she says.

Avantika Mohapatra, a 27-year-old investment consultant, opted for a spontaneous retreat to Kodaikanal. Her decision was made on a whim, driven by the need to escape the relentless pace of corporate life. "I wanted to be in nature, and during a break, I prefer destinations with limited network connectivity. The purpose of this trip is to unwind mentally and take a break from the corporate grind," says Mohapatra.

For those with a taste for adventure and only a day to spare, Sanchari, a group that organises treks across South India, planned a sunrise trek to Uttari Betta. Sara, a member of the team, explains, "Due to inconveniences and some restrictions from the government, many trekking locations have been closed for a few weeks. So, we only have a few options available now, like Uttari Betta, Nandi Hills, and Skandagiri. We are heading to Uttari Betta for a sunrise trek, and we already have 20 participants."

However, not all travel plans have been without challenges. Amit Mishra, founder of Tripper Tales, notes that the recent floods in Wayanad have deterred many from visiting the region. "People are hesitant to travel to any part of Kerala right now because of the situation. So, we're focusing on destinations like Puducherry, Hampi, Kodaikanal, Chikkamagaluru, and Gokarna, which are relatively less risky," he says, adding that their tours are fully booked, with around 270 travellers set to embark on their journeys this weekend.

While domestic travel remains popular, some are venturing further afield. According to Ranjini Nambiar, founder, Footloose Yatra Consultants, a travel agency, this weekend has seen a noticeable interest in international destinations, particularly in the Far East. "Because of the Paris Olympics, there wasn't much of a rush towards Europe. Instead, we've seen considerable interest in places like Kenya, Bali, and Vietnam," she notes.

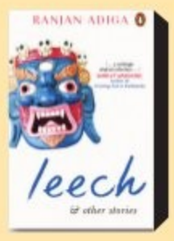
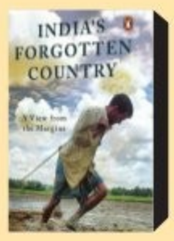
BOOK NOOK



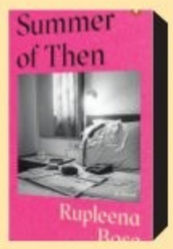
Leech and Other Stories
By Ranjan Adiga

A leech caught inside a man's nostril reveals fissures of class; a Nepali man tries to come to terms with his sexuality; a professor worries about his immigrant status; each story explores the distance between home and abroad, desire and reality, allegiance and treachery.



India's Forgotten Country
By Bela Bhatia

India's Forgotten Country captures Bela's early years as an activist in rural Gujarat, her research on the Naxalite movement, her investigations on violations of democratic rights in different regions, and her recent years dealing with the ongoing conflict between the state and Maoists in Bastar.



Summer of Then
By Rupleena Bose

'Summer of Then' is a debut novel that relishes the interiority of women, especially about the often-unsettling intimacies of relationships—sexual, romantic and platonic—against the trauma of sexual assault and harassment.

1965: Courage Unleashed
By Ian Cardozo

This narrative provides an in-depth exploration of 1965 Indo-Pak War, revealing the extensive and complex nature of the conflict. Major General Ian Cardozo, the first war-disabled officer of the Indian Army to command a battalion and a brigade, brings a unique and deeply personal perspective to the events of the 1965 war.

FITBIT

UTTHITA TADASANA

(FIVE-POINTED STAR POSE)

This is a variation of Tadasana (Mountain Pose). This transit pose is an important component of Vinyasa and Power Yoga flows as it provides the right alignment to progress to all warrior and standing poses. The prana flows like fluid, creating equilibrium with the cosmos and bringing out the shining star aura in the practitioner, and yoga teachers can use this pose for element yoga.

STEPS

- Stand in Tadasana (Mountain Pose), stretching the spine.
- Close your eyes and feel your body's movement with each breath. Hold this pose for about 6 breaths.
- Widen the feet, placing them firm on the floor while taking support of the heel.
- Put your body weight on the heels, while loosening the grip of your toes.
- Inhale and raise the torso, allowing the tail bone to sink naturally, and stretch the arms out at shoulder distance, parallel to the floor.
- From here, work on the alignment of the body — chin, chest, naval, pelvis — all should be in a line.
- Breath, while standing. Closing the eyes is optional here.
- Notice that one side of the body is always stronger or more flexible than the other side.
- Bring awareness to the stretch at the knee, foot, hip joint, pelvic floor muscles, Muladhara and Swadhisthana Chakras, expansion of the chest, shoulder joint, elbows and chin.
- Pulling the belly in and tightening the abdominal muscles, when you want to hold the pose longer, will improve the balance and concentration.
- To release after holding it for about 8 breaths, exhale and bring the feet together to stand in Tadasana.
- Inhale, stretch to repeat it again, standing for about 10 breaths.

BENEFITS

- Strengthens the shoulders, arms, sacrum, heels, and ankles.
- Opens the chest muscles effectively.
- Breath is rhythmic and calm, and syncs the mind to the body's alignment.
- Engages the glutes, quadriceps, hamstrings, and hip flexors.
- Strengthens and stabilises the body and helps with good body posture.
- De-stresses the mind and energises the body passively without dynamic movements.
- Can use this as therapy for postural correction, confidence-building.
- Prepares the body for balancing poses like Vrksasana and Flamingo Pose.
- Activates the muscles.
- Neurologists use this to test body balance, connecting to the brain functioning.
- Brings mental and physical stability.
- It is good for dancers and gymnasts.

LIMITATIONS

- Practitioners who have injuries to the hip joint, ankle, and shoulders, undergone spine, hip, knee and ankle surgery, suffering from migraine, severe arthritis of the hip, wrists, knee joints, and knees, ankles, avoid this practice.
- Seniors who have weak body frames should avoid holding this for a longer time. Initially, they can use wall support.
- Recommended for seniors and pregnant women.
- Differently-abled or those recovering from a prolonged illness or have undergone knee or ankle surgery can practice this.

GAINS FROM BLACK BREWS

NUTRIWISE
Sadhvika Srinivas

(The writer is a clinical nutritionist who attends to metabolic disorders. She also works towards sports nutrition.)

BLACK coffee, celebrated for its simplicity and robust flavour, is a staple in many cultures and daily routines. Beyond its role as a wake-up drink, black coffee offers a variety of nutritional benefits that contribute to overall health.

It is essentially free of calories, fat, and sugar, making it an excellent choice for those mindful of their caloric intake. Despite its minimal calorie content, black coffee is rich in bioactive compounds that offer significant health benefits.

Key nutritional components

1 Caffeine: Black coffee's most well-known ingredient is caffeine, a natural stimulant that affects the central nervous system. An eight-ounce cup contains approximately 95 mg of caffeine, although this can vary depending on factors like brewing method and coffee bean type.

2 Antioxidants: Coffee is one of the richest sources of antioxidants in the diet. These include chlorogenic acid and polyphenols, which help combat oxidative stress and inflammation, reducing the risk of chronic diseases.

3 Vitamins and minerals: While not a major source, black coffee does contain small amounts of essential nutrients such as Riboflavin (Vitamin B2), Niacin (Vitamin B3), Magnesium, and Potassium.

Benefits

- Coffee has been shown to help prevent degenerative disorders, many of which are related to neurostimulating, antioxidant and anti-inflammatory effects.
- A significant inverse association between coffee and specific deaths due to heart disease, respiratory disease, stroke, injuries and accidents, diabetes and infections was found (which are among the 10 leading causes of death, WHO).
- Caffeine has an ability to enhance mental performance, which includes enhancing alertness and perception.
- Caffeine consumption can also improve other functions such as memory and mood.
- Coffee components other than caffeine have also been shown to influence cognitive performance in an elderly population, though to a smaller extent than caffeine.
- Decaffeinated coffee enriched in chlorogenic acids can improve alertness and reduce headaches and mental fatigue.
- Caffeine exerts a positive effect on the endurance and exercise capacity, due to the effect on neural mechanisms.
- Coffee consumption reduces the risk of developing liver cancer by 40 per cent compared to no consumption.

Remember, the key is moderation. Too much caffeine can also cause heartburn, acidity and gastric distress. Enjoy your black coffee in moderation and savour the health benefits it brings!

MONIKA MONALISA

Fresh sourdough bread

DEVI Reissmuller's vision was clear. She wanted to bring German bread, cakes and cuisine to Bengaluru and combine two cultures through food and a fresh bite of a German pretzel. This is how German BrezelHaus became a reality. Reissmuller had tried German cuisine in Bengaluru earlier but nothing authentic enough. "Everything was just a fusion of a German idea with an Indian twist. Whatever I ate was tasty and fresh but not original. It did not taste like the food back in Germany," says Reissmuller, who moved to Bengaluru at the age of 19 and started her career as a German teacher but was always connected to food through her father who was the owner of multiple restaurants in Germany. The fast-selling items at German BrezelHaus are original German pretzels, all variations of the OG pretzels, chocolate-covered pretzels and Berliners.

Just like Reissmuller, Elyorbek, who originally hails from Turkmenistan, founded Lëzzet Turkish Confectionery, a cloud kitchen, to bring some unexplored flavours of Turkey to Bengaluru. "I noticed that while several places were offering Turkish food in Bengaluru, authentic Turkish baklava was missing from the scene. Some places were selling dry baklava under the name of Turkish baklava, but it wasn't the real deal. This inspired me to bring the genuine taste of Turkish baklava to the city," says Elyorbek, who is now glad that Bengalureans are able to taste the flavours he grew up having.

"Bengalureans have a deep appreciation for international cuisines. Seeing the initial response to our Turkish baklava motivated us to improve the quality and taste," he says.

If you are on social media, then there are chances you have come across the buzz about the latest opening in the city, Kopitiam Lah, which serves Malaysian food. The place has already been visited by celebrities like tennis icon Leander Paes. Joonie Tan, the Malaysian-origin founder, says Malaysia is a melting pot of cultures, and the cuisine reflects that vibrant diversity. "I wanted to bring Malaysian delicacies to Bengaluru to introduce the rich tapestry of flavours – from the aromatic spices of rendang to the comforting taste of laksa. Bengaluru appreciates culinary diversity," she says, adding, that their nasi lemak is a crowd-favourite which also happens to be the national dish of Malaysia.

B'luru's burgeoning craft beer revolution

MIXOLOGY
Suraj Shedbale

(The writer is the brewmaster at URU Brewpark)

OFTEN called the 'Pub City of India' due to the proliferation of pubs offering beer on tap that mushroomed three-four decades ago, Bengaluru is now also gaining recognition for its burgeoning craft beer culture. Several brewpubs and microbreweries have emerged, offering fantastic options to their customers. Bengaluru's tap beer scene caters to everyone, sometimes leaving people spoiled for choice and unsure of what to order. To help with that, I've explained the characteristics of popular brews available in the market so that anyone venturing into the exciting world of craft beers can have some idea of what to experiment with.

Ale

Ales are brewed with top-fermenting yeast at warmer temperatures, resulting in a range of fruity and complex flavours. They are generally more robust and can vary from pale and hoppy to dark and malty.

Lager

Lagers are brewed with bottom-fermenting yeast at cooler temperatures. They are usually light, crisp, and refreshing, with a mild flavour profile.

Wheat Beer

Wheat beers are top-fermented and brewed with a significant proportion of wheat in addition to barley. Originating in Bavaria, wheat beers are typically light in colour, low in alcohol content, and can be either cloudy or clear in appearance. They tend to lack bitterness, making them easy to drink. Popular wheat beers include Weizen from Germany, Witbier from Belgium, and Biere Blanche (White Beer in French) from France.

Stout

Stouts are dark beers made with roasted malts or barley, giving them a rich, creamy texture and flavours of coffee, chocolate, or caramel.

India Pale Ale (IPA)

IPAs are known for their strong hop bitterness and higher alcohol content. They can range from floral and fruity to piney and resinous, making them a bold choice for adventurous drinkers.

Seasonal Beers

In addition to regular brews, most breweries offer a selection of their brewmaster's seasonal creations, highlighting the flavours of different seasons. At Uru, for instance, the lineup includes refreshing options like tropical saison beer and mango ale, as well as a juicy pale ale, all designed to tantalise the taste buds. Each seasonal brew is crafted with fresh ingredients, ensuring that every sip reflects the essence of the season. From the fruity notes of summer to the comforting flavours of the monsoon, seasonal brews are a celebration of innovation and creativity. Available on tap, these limited-edition beers entice beer lovers to experience something new each season.

NATIONAL AWARD WINS FOR KGF CHAPTER 2 AND KANTARA A DOUBLE DELIGHT FOR HOMBALE FILMS

A SHARADHAA

THE films that won at the 70th National Film Awards were announced today (August 16) on the festive occasion of Varamahalakshmi, and it brought double joy to Hombale Films. Their two film productions, KGF Chapter 2 and Kantara, won in four categories. KGF Chapter 2 won Best Kannada Film, and Anbariv won for Best Action Choreography. Rishab Shetty's directorial Kantara earned Shetty the Best Actor award and won Best Popular Film Providing Wholesome Entertainment. Here is how the who's who of Kannada cinema responded to their respective achievements.

"These awards are a result of our team's hard work"

An elated Vijay Kiragandur, the founder of Hombale Films, expressed his excitement, stating, "Receiving national awards on Varamahalakshmi for two films made under the banner is of course a double delight and a lot of responsibility. We are committed to delivering quality films, and these awards are a result of our team's hard work." He added, "For Kantara, the success comes not just from a commercial perspective but also from its exploration of the divine element and the conflict between humans and nature. The film's music and acting provided wholesome entertainment."

Discussing KGF Chapter 2, Kiragandur highlighted the film's unique impact, saying, "This film, released after Covid, created a significant buzz both in the Kannada industry and nationally. It earned over 1200 crore at the box office and involved impressive direction, action, and music. The well-choreographed stunts, especially the fight scenes between Yash and Sanjay Dutt, provided great entertainment for the audience."

Looking forward, Vijay Kiragandur mentioned upcoming projects, including Bhageera, starring Sriimurali and directed by Dr. Suri, expected to release in December or January 2025. He also hinted at the release of the Kantara prequel next year and confirmed that KGF Chapter 3 is in the pipeline. "We are waiting for Yash to complete his current commitments and for Prashanth Neel to finish his project, which might take a year. But we are definitely moving forward with KGF 3," he said.

"A proud moment for Kannada cinema on the national stage!"

Yash took to Twitter to congratulate all the National Award winners. He also gave a special shout-out to Rishab Shetty, Hombale Films, and Prashanth Neel, saying, "Congratulations to all the winners! Here's to many more heights! It's a proud moment for Kannada cinema on the national stage!"

"A shining moment for Kannada cinema"

A grateful and humble Prashanth Neel says, "I am truly honoured by this National Award for KGF Chapter 2. My deepest gratitude goes to Yash for his extraordinary performance and to the entire team and the crew for their relentless dedication. A heartfelt thank you to our audience for their unwavering support and to the media for their vital role in this journey. Congratulations to Rishab Shetty and Hombale Films for their well-deserved recognition with Kantara. This achievement is a shining moment for Kannada cinema, and I'm grateful to everyone who made this possible."

"Divine blessing contributed to Kantara's success"

Reacting on Kantara's win, Rishab Shetty commented, "The National Award is a prestigious honour. I hold it in high regard because it involves many senior personalities on the jury. Winning this award brings immense happiness and a responsibility to strive for even better cinema."

Rishab praised the film's success across languages, noting, "The way audiences speaking different languages came together to embrace Kantara brings me immense happiness. I drink, eat, breathe, and live Kannada cinema. My strong belief has always been that our Kannada films should reach new heights and cross language barriers, especially considering today's scenario and the business opportunities for a larger reach."

Rishab also dedicated the award to the daiva narthakas (shamanistic dance performers) and their families, believing their divine blessings contributed to the success of Kantara. He also shared his personal journey: "At one point, I focused on direction and set aside acting due to limited opportunities. My actor friend Pramod, director Jayathirtha, and producer Santhosh gave me the chance to act in Bell Bottom as a lead hero, and since then, I have done four films. However, Kantara was my first film as both an actor and director. Being recognised among such esteemed actors fills me with gratitude."

Addressing whether the award has placed more responsibility on the upcoming Kantara prequel, Rishab mentioned, "I always believed that excitement and expectations are not burdens to carry forward. It's about making good cinema. The support from Hombale Films has been invaluable, and winning awards for two films under their banner is a proud achievement for all of us."

Upendra's UI set for October release

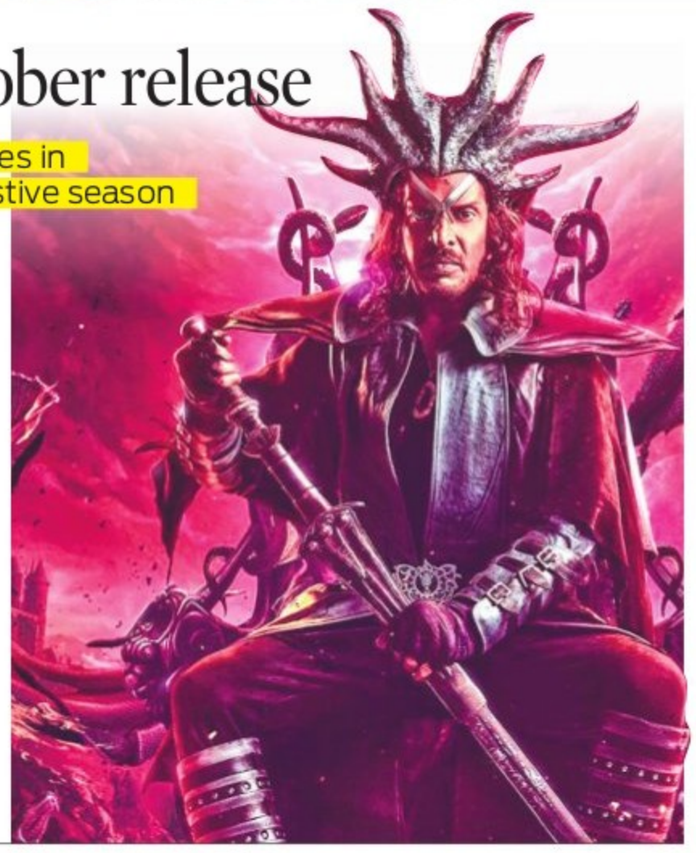
The makers are looking to release it in theatres in multiple languages around the Deepavali festive season

UPENDRA'S UI is one of the most anticipated films of the year, and the makers have built significant excitement around this multilingual release. The latest buzz has been fueled by a striking new poster featuring an apple pierced by an arrow, set against a backdrop of a futuristic world in flames. This visually arresting image hints at an upcoming release date, which has now been officially confirmed for October. Dhruva Sarja's Martin is also set for an October 11 release, and there is speculation that UI movie might also come out in theatres towards the end of the month, though the makers are yet to confirm it.

Upendra's hiatus from directing ends with his return via UI, a development that has piqued significant interest among fans. Each glimpse of the film has only heightened expectations. It promises a unique experience with a storyline focusing on Universal Intelligence (UI) and a diverse cast. The film's first teaser has already generated a fantastic response, further fueling excitement. Adding to the anticipation, the music composed by Ajaneesh Loknath of Kantara fame has gained popularity, thanks in part to a viral troll song featuring Reeshma Nanaiah as the female lead.

Produced by G Manoharan's Lahari Films and KP Sreekanth's Venus Entertainers, with co-production by Naveen Manoharan, UI is set to be one of the most eagerly awaited films of the year.



A charming Samarjit Lankesh shoulders this heartfelt commercial entertainer

A SHARADHAA

INDRAJIT Lankesh, a seasoned director, steps into a new chapter by launching his son, Samarjit Lankesh, onto the silver screen with Gowri. The film marks a significant milestone for the father and son as it intertwines their personal and professional aspirations. Does Indrajit uphold his high standards with the film while guiding his son's debut? Let us find out...

In Gowri, we follow Gowrishankar (Samarjit Lankesh), a young man from a rural town who, like his mother, was born deaf due to a genetic condition. His father (Sampath Maithreya), a traditional travelling singer, hoped Gowri would continue the family legacy, but his disability turns out to be a significant hurdle. Despite persistent discouragement from his father, Gowri's mother (Manasi Sudhir) remains a steadfast supporter, urging him to pursue his singing dreams beyond their village. On the flip side, Samantha (Saanya Iyer), from a privileged background, is on a quest to discover exceptionally talented, differently-abled artists for her team. She happens to see Gowri as he performs passionately at a temple and invites him to join her esteemed Barisu Kannada Dindimava group. As Gowri moves to Bangalore to chase his dreams, he faces numerous formidable challenges but ultimately earns a chance to showcase his talent on a prestigious reality show. Alongside his journey, a subtle romance develops. The film chronicles Gowri's relentless pursuit of his musical ambitions while Samantha builds her band, raising the question of whether he can achieve his goals despite the odds stacked against him.

GOWRI
Director: Indrajit Lankesh
Cast: Samarjit Lankesh, Saanya Iyer, Sampath Maithreya, Manasi Sudhir

Indrajit Lankesh aims to blend commercial entertainment with a motivational social theme in Gowri but struggles to leave a lasting impact. While the film's emotional core, especially the heartfelt depiction of the mother's support, resonates deeply, it falters in critical areas.

The portrayal of Gowri's hearing impairment is inconsistent, often failing to convincingly depict his struggles. The romantic subplot is woefully underdeveloped, lacking the emotional depth needed to forge a genuine connection between the leads. The film tries to inject humour through Manju Pavagada and Nawaz's antics, but these scenes fall flat, contributing little to its overall impact and extending its length. Even the title Gowri seems like a superficial nod to the protagonist, lacking deeper significance.

On a positive note, though, the film's cinematography, particularly showcasing the beauty of Chikkamagaluru, is impressive and effectively captures the region's charm. The music, especially the tracks 'Muddada' and 'Time Barrutte', adds to the film's appeal.

With Samarjit Lankesh stepping into the lead role, there was considerable anticipation for Gowri, offering a glimpse into his potential. Samarjit's dual roles look ambitious, and his charming presence as well as strong dance and action skills stand out. There are minor flaws in his performance, which is understandable for a debutant. Saanya Iyer, as the female lead, takes on a mature role, though some might have preferred to see more of her energetic side. She still makes a meaningful contribution to the film. Sampath Maithreya and Manasi Sudhir deliver strong performances, adding depth to their characters. The film also features notable guest appearances by Yogi, Priyanka Upendra, Ricky Kej, Vasundhara Das, and Akul Balaji.

On the final assessment, warts and all, with Gowri, Indrajit has provided his son Samarjit with the perfect launch vehicle, one he kicks into overdrive. May he never look back.

REIMAGINES ROMANCE WITH HEART

A SHARADHAA

KRISHNAM PRANAYA SAKHI
Director: Srinivasa Raju
Cast: Ganesh, Malavika Nair, Sharanya Shetty, Sadhu Kokila, Rangayana Raghu, Kuri Pratap, Shruthi, Shashikumar, and Ramakrishna

WE often discuss the idea of second chances in life, and the same can be said for love. This is at the heart of Krishna Pranaya Sakhi, a film revolving around themes of love and destiny while diving into the lives of its titular characters. Before plunging into the story, let's consider Golden Star Ganesh, whose films are celebrated for their charming mix of romance, heartfelt family moments, humour, and memorable melodies, all presented in an engaging style. When you think of director Srinivasa Raju, Dandupalya likely comes to mind. So, when this director and actor collaborate, the result is Krishna Pranaya Sakhi.

Human connections are often woven together by love, responsibility, or even destiny, and maintaining these bonds requires effort. This Ganesh-led film follows two people from different backgrounds who start as lovers, marry, and then rediscover their love. This forms the core of the film, unfolding as a family drama with intermittent flashbacks. Krishna (Ganesh), a wealthy young man, falls for Pranaya (Malavika Nair), an orphan at a shelter. To win her love, Krishna disguises himself as a poor man and takes a job as a driver at the shelter.

The story might sound familiar and clearly shows that Krishna Pranaya Sakhi doesn't reinvent the wheel. However, director Srinivasa Raju adds new twists, breathing fresh life into this tale, an addition to Ganesh's list of romantic dramas. The director adeptly connects the dots of the predictable plot by infusing it with refined elements and a heartfelt approach. The cinematography, adorned with stunning landscapes, beautifully captures the film's warm essence, turning every frame into a visual delight. The true standout of the film is its soulful music by Arjun Janya. The melodic soundtracks, such as 'Dwapara to Chinamma' and the peppy song 'My Marriage is Fixed,' and others, bind the emotional threads of the story and resonate with us. The film shines with good production values and costumes that enhance its visual appeal.

The director explores how unexpected events can dramatically alter lives and how trauma influences love and relationships. The film merges elements from various beloved movies that deal with memory and emotional struggle. Despite the story feeling fragmented initially, it gathers its pieces by the end.

Even though Ganesh has played similar roles many times before, he still makes the typical lover-boy role his own. He leads with his signature charm and natural acting skills, and his on-screen romance feels genuine as he balances his role as a loving son with a touch of comedy and emotion.

Malavika Nair, in her Kannada film debut, performs with grace and skillfully handles subtle moments. Her presence adds a fresh dimension to the complex scenes, and her chemistry with Ganesh enhances the film. Sharanya Shetty brings a touch of intrigue to her negative role, while supporting actors like Shashikumar, Shruthi, Ramakrishna, Ashok, and Shivadhwaj have brief but notable roles. Rangayana Raghu, blending Kannada and Telugu, and comedians Sadhu Kokila, Kuri Pratap, and Giri Shivanna provide some laughs with their limited screen time.

Some aspects of the characters in Krishna Pranaya Sakhi might feel overdone, which is evident in commercial cinema. Nevertheless, it remains a portrayal of human emotions that can connect with audiences of all ages.
